Lullabies For Little Criminals:

Lullabies for Little Criminals Heather O'Neill, 2016-04-05 A beautiful book There are phrases in here that will make you laugh out loud and others that will stop your heart A definite triumph David Rakoff author of Love Dishonor Marry Die Cherish Perish From Heather O'Neill the Giller shortlisted author of Daydreams of Angels and The Girl Who Was Saturday Night a heartbreaking and wholly original novel about a young girl fighting to preserve a bruised innocence on the feral streets of a big city Baby all of thirteen years old is lost in the gangly coltish moment between childhood and the strange pulls and temptations of the adult world Her mother is dead her father Jules is always on the lookout for his next score Baby knows that chocolate milk is Jules slang for heroin and sees a lot more of that in her house than the real article But she takes vivid delight in the scrappy bits of happiness and beauty that find their way to her and moves through the threat of the streets as if she's been choreographed in a dance Soon though a hazard emerges that is bigger than even her hard won survival skills can handle Alphonse the local pimp has his eye on her for his new girl he wants her body and soul and what the johns don't take he covets for himself At the same time a tender and naively passionate friendship unfolds with a boy from her class at school who has no notion of the dark claims on her which even her father lost on the nod cannot totally ignore Jules consigns her to a stint in juvie hall and for the moment this perceived betrayal preserves Baby from terrible harm but after that her salvation has to be her own invention Channeling the artlessly affecting voice of her thirteen year old heroine with extraordinary accuracy and power O'Neill's dazzles with a novel of extraordinary prescience and power a subtly understated yet searingly effective story of a young life on the streets and the strength wits and luck necessary for survival

Fabre,2016-01-01 In the richly interdisciplinary study Challenging Addiction in Canadian Literature and Classrooms Cara Fabre argues that popular culture in its many forms contributes to common assumptions about the causes and personal and social implications of addiction Recent fictional depictions of addiction significantly refute the idea that addiction is caused by poor individual choices or solely by disease through the connections the authors draw between substance use and poverty colonialism and gender based violence With particular interest in the pervasive myth of the Drunken Indian Fabre asserts that these novels reimagine addiction as social suffering rather than individual pathology or moral failure Fabre builds on the growing body of humanities research that brings literature into active engagement with other fields of study including biomedical and cognitive behavioural models of addiction medical and health policies of harm reduction and the practices of Alcoholics Anonymous The book further engages with critical pedagogical strategies to teach critical awareness of stereotypes of addiction and to encourage the potential of literary analysis as a form of social activism Wisdom in Nonsense Heather O'Neill,2018-02-01 I broke all the rules that my dad gave me It was he who had given me in part the confidence to think of my life as being worthy to mix with those of the geniuses Heather O Neill With generosity and wry humour novelist Heather O Neill recalls several key lessons she learned in childhood from her father memories and stories about how crime does pay why one should never keep a diary and that it is good to beware of clowns among other things Her father and his eccentric friends ex bank robbers and homeless men taught her that everything she did was important a belief that she has carried through her life O Neill s intimate recollections make Wisdom in Nonsense the perfect companion to her widely praised debut novel Lullabies for Little Criminals HarperCollins Introduction by Kit Dobson Drawn & Quarterly: Twenty-Five Years of Contemporary Cartooning, Comics, and Graphic Novels ,2021-08-31 Drawn assembles biographies personal reminiscences and interviews with key D Q staff and curates essays by Margaret Atwood Sheila Heti Jonathan Lethem Deb Olin Unferth Heather O Neill Lemony Snicket Chris Ware and noted comics scholars D Q 25 is the rare chance to witness a literary movement in progress how a group of dedicated artists and their publisher changed the future of a century old medium Quill & Quire ,2008 People ,2006-09 Lullabiesforlittlecriminalsproof Heather O'Neill,2007-09-07 The Malahat Review ,2008 The Believer ,2007 Jeff Herman's Guide to Book Publishers, Editors & Literary Agents 2007 Jeff Herman,2006-12 Presents a guide to the names and specialities of American and Canadian publishers editors and literary agents including information on the acquisition process and on choosing literary agents A Week of This Nathan Whitlock,2008-04 A brilliant darkly comic and startlingly honest novel A Week of This follows the lives of an extended family over one increasingly desperate week At the centre of the novel is 38 year old Manda a tough sarcastic woman who has yet to make peace with the town she was brought to as a teenager after her parents messy divorce Her estranged mother is crazy her father is ill and in retreat her damaged older brother is growing restless and distant her stepbrother is a grown up teenager without any real friends and her husband is a tight lipped depressed store
