noaccount to be disturbed this afternoon Annette was the picture of despair Eyebrows and hands betrayed alike both her agitation of mind and her nationality Madame she said did I not say so to monsieur I begged him to call again I told him thatmadame was lying down with a bad headache and that it was as much as my place was worth to disturb her What did he answer Only this That it would be as much as my place was worth if I did not come up and tell you that he was here to see you on a very urgent matter Indeed madame he was very very impatient with me Of whom are you talking the Princess asked But of Major Forrest madame Annette declared It is he who waits below The Princess closed her eyes for a moment and then slowly opened them She stretched out her hand and from a table by her side took up a small gilt mirror Turn on the lights Annette she commanded The maid illuminated the darkened room The Princess gazed at herself in the mirror and reaching out again took a small powder puff from its case and gently dabbed her face Then she laid both mirror and powder puff back in their places You will tell monsieur she said that I am very unwell indeed but that since he is here and his business is urgent I will see him Turn out the lights Annette I am not fit to be seen And move my couch a little so Madame is only a little pale the maid said reassuringly That makes nothing These Englishwomen have all too much colour I go to tell monsieur Jeanne of the Marshes E Phillips Oppenheim, 2020-04-09 The man obeyed in silence When he had made himself quite comfortable he raised her hand the one which was nearest to him to his lips and afterwards retained it in his own Forgive me if I seem unsympathetic Ena he said The fact is everything has been getting on my nerves for the last few days and my luck seems dead out She looked at him curiously She was past middle age and her face showed signs of the wear and tear of life But she still had fine eyes and the rejuvenating arts of Bond Street had done their best for her What is the matter Nigel she asked Have the cards been going against you He frowned and hesitated for a moment before replying Ena he said between us two there is an ancient bargain and that is that we should tell the truth to one another I will tell you what it is that is worrying me most I have suspected it for some time but this afternoon it was absolutely obvious There is a sort of feeling at the club I can't exactly describe it but I am conscious of it directly I come into the room For several days I have scarcely been able to get a rubber This afternoon when I cut in with Harewood and Mildmay and another fellow two of them made some sort of an excuse and went off I pretended not to notice it of course but there it was The thing was apparent and it is the very devil Again she looked at him closely There is nothing tangible she asked No complaint or scandal or anything of that sort He rejected the suggestion with scorn No he said I am not such an idiot as that All the same there is the feeling They don't care to play bridge with me There is only young Engleton who takes my part and so far as playing bridge for money is concerned he would be worth the whole lot put together if only I could get him away from them make up a little party somewhere and have him to myself for a week or two The Athenaeum ,1909 Athenaeum and Literary Chronicle ,1909
