study Christian Nation, 1923 Life This Side of Heaven Richard Wenden, 2024-06-03 Where else would you rather be For many people today particularly in affluent lifestyle driven beachside suburbs that is their mantra and being at church and following Jesus is perhaps the furthest thing from their minds As Christians grapple with how to bring the good news to an increasingly hedonistic and apathetic post Christian culture this book shows where we find ourselves culturally discusses why that is and suggests some ways forward including how we might reorder people s disordered loves fostering a faithful presence in our spheres of influence and seeking ways to connect meaningfully All this is a way of assisting churches in their particular cultural contexts to move from an attractional mode of thinking about ministry and church life to a mindset that enables them to carry out effective gospel ministry to their community and underlying subcultures The author hopes it will be a help for churches that have historically struggled to be missionally focused serving as an encouragement in reconsidering their approach to ministry planning so they might have a significant gospel based long term impact on individual church members and the community life of the church to bring blessing to their suburbs gospel growth to churches and glory to God

The Presbyterian, 1909 Paul and Economics Thomas R. Blanton IV, Raymond Pickett, 2017-06-15 The social context of Paul s mission and congregations has been the study of intense investigation for decades but only in recent years have questions of economic realities and the relationship between rich and poor come to the forefront In Paul and Economics leading scholars address a variety of topics in contemporary discussion including an overview of the Roman economy the economic profile of Paul and of his communities and stratification within them architectural considerations regarding where they met food and drink idol meat and the Lord s Supper material conditions of urban poverty patronage slavery travel gender and status the collection for Jerusalem and the role of Marxist theory and the question of political economy in Paul scholarship

Christianity in Central Tanzania Mwita Akiri, 2020-02-14 In the telling of the history of the Church Missionary Society CMS in Tanzania the initiatives contributions and experiences of indigenous teachers have too often been neglected in favour of stories of sacrifices of Western missionaries Bishop Mwita Akiri redresses this bias by using a socio historical approach written from an Afro centric tradition to evaluate the contributions and experiences of indigenous agents in the growth of Christianity in Tanzania This book underscores the significance of oral tradition in African historiography and challenges the claim that foreign missionaries succeeded in destroying African cultures when they are in fact alive and well This much needed research also provides a model for dialogue between the perspective of Christian missions and that of African religious and social heritage in order to continue forward with a Christianity that is authentic and also distinctly African

The Morning Star and Free Baptist, 1899 Paul and the Competing Mission in Corinth Michael D. Goulder, 2001 Most of Paul s letters were written in the context of conflict with trouble making opponents but scholars disagree as to who those opponents were Years ago F C Baur suggested that two competing missions one headed by Paul the other by James Peter and John sent out a series of emissaries to win converts to the Christian faith In Paul and the Competing

Mission in Corinth Michael Goulder has examined Paul's conflict with the counter missionaries especially as reflected in the Corinthian Letters and has put a new spin on Baur's theory. In this book which is the culmination of decades of work Goulder has painted a simple and convincing picture of the relationship between the mission of Paul and that of the counter missionaries whom he identifies as those evangelists sent by the pillars in Jerusalem. Goulder presents carefully assembled evidence in order to advance our picture of the early church and Paul's place in it. His two missions hypothesis amounts to a comprehensive theory of the origins of Christianity and the New Testament. The Library of Pauline Studies is a series of books exploring key issues in Pauline and related studies. This series is edited by Stanley E. Porter, Principal Dean and Professor of New Testament at McMaster Divinity College, Hamilton, Ontario, Canada. The Commoner, 1902 Armor, 2009 Farmer's Advocate and Home Magazine, 1905 Report of the Committee Church Missionary Society, 1922 American Miller, 1904 The Church Times, 1903 Alliance News, 1873 Robert Southwell and the Mission of Literature, 1561-1595 Scott R. Pilarz, 2004. In this book Scott Pilarz explores how the literary legacy of Robert Southwell S.J. kept his voice alive after his hanging in 1595. The Elizabethan establishment viewed Southwell as a subversive and he has received only scant attention from scholars in the centuries since his death. Pilarz restores the Jesuit poet to his rightful position of importance in literature and history showing how Southwell's works mark the point of convergence of aesthetic, theological, political, and personal influences that determined the ethos of the period. The study offers fresh insight into energies that shaped early modern culture and provokes more sophisticated and respectful analysis of religion in literature. Time Briton Hadden, Henry Robinson Luce, 1975
