La Compagnie Des Spectres:

The Company of Ghosts Lydie Salvayre, 2006 In Some Useful Advice for Apprentice Process Servers a short piece also included in this book the author grants the process server a right of reply which he uses to chilling effect Jacket Mind the Ghost Sonja Stojanovic, 2023-01-16 Spectrality disrupts and fissures our conceptions of time unmaking and complicating binaries such as life and death presence and absence the visible and the invisible and literality and metaphor A contribution to current conversations in memory studies and spectrality studies Mind the Ghost is an experiment in reading ghosts otherwise It explores through contemporary fiction in French sites of textual haunting that take the form of names lists objects photographs and stains The book turns to Jacques Derrida and Hélène Cixous to rethink what constitutes and functions as a ghost proposing that this figure solicits readers investment in mnemonic practices Considering the memories and legacies of violence that have marked the greater part of the twentieth century in Algeria Bosnia Croatia France and Rwanda this book traces absences disappearances and reappearances textual omissions and untimely irruptions to posit literature's power to both remember and communicate beyond the bounds of chronological time Through close readings of recent fiction by Kaouther Adimi Jakuta Alikavazovic Gal Faye Jérôme Ferrari Patrick Modiano Lydie Salvayre Leïla Sebbar and Cécile Wajsbrot Mind the Ghost articulates the mechanisms through which readers themselves become haunted

Fiction Now Warren F. Motte, 2008 Fiction Now reports on the current states of the novel in France taking a series of soundings within the compass of innovative French writing since 2001 Chapters focus closely upon Jean Echenoz Marie Redonnet Christian Gailly Lydie Salvayre Gérard Gavarry Hélène Lenoir Patrick Lapeyre and Christine Montalbetti Each of the authors invoked exemplified in his or her work a different set of strategies concerns and approaches one of them transposes the Book of Judith to the Parisian suburbs another imagines the most taciturn of cowboys in the American West still another goes well beyond death into the afterlife of a concert pianist Despite their diversity of theme and technique these writers share a will to make French fiction new and demonstrate compellingly that the novel as it is practiced in France today is an extremely vigorous deeply enthralling and richly plural cultural form Relational Responses to Trauma in Twenty-First-Century French and Spanish Women's Writing Hannie Lawlor, 2024-09-05 Relational Responses to Trauma in Twenty-First-Century French and Spanish Women's Writing offers new insight into what it means to write relational lives It broadens the parameters of existing discussions in terms of geography as well as genre drawing together two literatures whose prominence in life writing theory to date could hardly be more different while French women's writing has long been at the centre of international discussions of autobiography the relative invisibility of Spanish women's writing remains striking The dialogue that thus underpins this study between diverse twenty-first-century case studies and broader approaches to life writing shines a light on what is gained from inviting different voices into the discussion These narrative projects challenge longstanding critical assumptions in autobiography studies and trauma theory about how writers can and should represent the multiple perspectives that are at the heart of intergenerational stories In exploring the narrative solutions that these texts propose in response to the ethical questions they navigate this book shows that writing relational lives rests on far more than the mere recounting of a shared history Relating in these texts it proposes is an act embedded in the telling of the story It is a mode of testifying together to traumatic experience one that reveals a powerful preoccupation in contemporary women s life writing practice with making more audible the many voices and versions that go unheard
