Florida's Motorcycle Helmet Law Repeal ,2005 Florida's Motorcycle Helmet Law Repeal and Fatality Rates

A. Müller,2004 On July 1 2000 the State of Florida exempted adult motorcyclist and moped riders from wearing helmets provided they have medical insurance of 10 000 Monthly time series of motorcycle occupant deaths are examined from 1 1994 to 12 2001 The interrupted time series analysis estimates a 48 6% increase in motorcycle occupant deaths the year after the law change The impact estimate reduces to 38 2% and 21 3% when trends in travel miles and motorcycle registrations are controlled Our findings suggest that the law s age exemption should be revoked Florida's Weakened intended as a core textbook for courses in public health that examines current issues in health from a social and behavioral science perspective It is a cross disciplinary course public health medical sociology health psychology medical anthropology and thus there are many ways to teach the course based on a particular instructor s perspective The authors wrote the book because they were dissatisfied with the way other texts apply social science to public health and found that many texts being used were from related fields such as medicine nursing or general health The authors are planning to do a major revision based on reviews they have collected and the reviews we have collected We believe the revised edition will essentially be a new text based on rich feedback They will include new theory new cases new research and a rich ancillary package They will also reduce the frameworks presented to make the book more readable to students
