SETTLEMENT GEOGRAPHY

2.1 How site and situation affect the location of rural settlements

PHYSICAL FACTORS:

- ✓ Early settlements develop around a subsistence farming
- ✓ Choice of site is linked to physical aspects of site

1. Availability of fresh water supply

2. Farming factors

Fertile and arable land or land that provides good grazing for livestock.
Land that are flat or gentle are also preferred.

3. Availability of building material and energy resources

Stone, clay, mud, grass and wood were used to build houses. Burning of wood was used as a source for heating and cooking.

4. Positive effects of microclimate

Southern hemisphere – settle on north-facing slopes: direct sunshine, heat and light.

Hilly areas – settlements on warmer inversion layer

Not settlements in hill tops or valley floors: low temperature specially at night.

ECONOMIC FACTORS

- ✓ Fertile, well-drained soil and grazing land attracts commercial farming settlements.
- ✓ Natural harbour, close to productive fishing grounds leads to the development of settlements.

Memo For Geography 2013 Grade 11 September:

Geopolitics and the Quest for Dominance Jeremy Black, 2015-11-25 History and geography delineate the operation of power not only its range but also the capacity to plan and the ability to implement Approaching state strategy and policy from the spatial angle Jeremy Black argues that just as the perception of power is central to issues of power so place and its constraints and relationships is partly a matter of perception not merely map coordinates Geopolitics he maintains is as much about ideas and perception as it is about the actual spatial dimensions of power Black's study ranges widely examining geography and the spatial nature of state power from the 15th century to the present day He considers the rise of British power geopolitics and the age of Imperialism the Nazis and World War II and the Cold War and he looks at the key theorists of the latter 20th century including Henry Kissinger Francis Fukuyama and Samuel P Huntington Philip Bobbitt Niall Ferguson and others

Sustainable Peace in Northeast Asia Yong-Shik Lee, 2023-09-05 Sustainable Peace in Northeast Asia examines the causes of lasting and complex tensions in the region from underlying political historical military and economic perspectives discusses their historical development and political economic implications for the world and explores possible solutions to build lasting peace The book is unique in that it approaches the topic from the historical perspective of each constituent country in the region Major global powers such as the United States and Russia have also closely engaged in the political and economic affairs of this region through a network of alliances diplomacy trade and investment The book also discusses the influence of these external powers over the crisis their political and economic objectives in the region their strategies and the dynamics that their engagement has created Both South Korea and North Korea have sought reunification of the Korean peninsula which will have a substantial impact on the region The book examines its justification feasibility and effects for the region The book discusses the role of Mongolia in the context of the power dynamics in Northeast Asia A relatively small country in terms of its population Mongolia has rarely been examined in this context Sustainable Peace in Northeast Asia makes a fresh assessment of its potential role

Sōtēropoulos, 2020 This volume is the authoritative Handbook guide to the development of Greek politics economy and society from the period of the fall of the Colonels Regime 1974 to the present day including the causes and consequences of the crisis in Greece and the aftermath of the crisis in comparative and historical perspective

Patriarchy Inc. Cordelia Fine, 2025-08-19 A razor sharp and quick witted analysis of why we need a new approach to fixing the gender inequality embedded in work Work remains much as it always has men occupy the vast majority of leadership roles and are overrepresented in positions from engineer to plumber We see many jobs as male or female with women dominating in healthcare and childcare professions Pretending that this is the natural state of things or that instead both sexes should submit to working 24/7 is just not right In Patriarchy Inc Cordelia Fine examines with razor sharp and quick witted analysis why gender inequality is embedded in the workplace and why it has to change Drawing on theories from evolutionary science psychology economics and sociology she examines two of the most prominent movements in the corporate world The Different But Equal viewpoint espouses that women are in the jobs they want despite their lower status and salaries In the meantime DEI Diversity Equity Inclusion has become a slogan that emphasizes productivity and profit not fair play Fine shows how both are wrong and the bad effects on everyone when men are still stuck in traditional breadwinner roles and women are having to fight for their due Offering perceptive and much needed insight into the current state of work Patriarchy Inc explores how we can get closer to achieving equality even if it means upturning business as usual

Livable Streets 2.0 Bruce Appleyard,2021-03-22 Livable Streets 2 0 offers a thorough examination of the struggle between automobiles residents pedestrians and other users of streets along with evidence based practical strategies for redesigning city street networks that support urban livability In 1981 when Donald Appleyard s Livable Streets was published it was globally recognized as a groundbreaking work one of the most influential urban design books of its time Unfortunately he was killed a year later by a speeding drunk driver This latest update Livable Streets 2 0 revisited by his son Bruce updates the topic with the latest research new case studies and best human centered practices for creating more livable streets for all It is essential reading for those who influence future directions in city and transportation planning urban design and community regeneration and placemaking Incorporates the most current empirical research on urban transportation and land use practices that support the need for more livable communities Includes recent case studies from around the world on successful projects campaigns programs and other efforts Contains new coverage of vulnerable populations

Placing Internationalism Stephen Legg, Mike Heffernan, Jake Hodder, Benjamin Thorpe, 2021-11-04 Exploring how modern internationalism emerged as a negotiated process through international conferences this edited collection studies the spaces and networks through which states civil society institutions and anti colonial political networks used these events to realise their visions of the international Taking an interdisciplinary approach contributors explore the spatial paradox of two fundamental features of modern internationalism First internationalism demanded the overcoming of space transcending the nation state in search of the shared interests of humankind Second internationalism was geographically contingent on the places in which people came together to conceive and enact their internationalist ideas From Paris 1919 to Bandung 1955 and beyond this book explores international conferences as the sites in which different forms of internationalism assumed material and social form While international permanent institutions such as the League of Nations UN and Institute of Pacific Relations constantly negotiated national and imperial politics lesser resourced political networks also used international conferences to forward their more radical demands Taken together these conferences radically expand our conception of where and how modern internationalism emerged and make the case for focusing on internationalism in a contemporary moment when its merits are being called into question

Sanctuary Cities, Communities, and Organizations Melvin Delgado, 2018-08-29 This is the first academic book to address the subject of sanctuary cities in the United States The topic is of immense saliency in the socio political discourse in the United States with events breaking practically every week concerning the fate of those who are undocumented in this country including people with DACA statuses The text provides a comprehensive and up to date view of the national issue that promises to continue to stay in the public glare during 2018 and beyond Dictionary Catalog of the Research Libraries of the New York Public Library, 1911-1971 New York Public Library.
