Chika Trevor Sehoole,Jenny J. Lee

Makerere University Undergraduate Enrollment For 2015 2016:

Intra-Africa Student Mobility in Higher Education Chika Trevor Sehoole, Jenny J. Lee, 2022-01-01 This book examines student mobility within Africa International student mobility is among the central activities of higher education internationalization As the number of international students increase so do the destinations in both number and geographic diversity Historically international student mobility has followed South North and North North patterns However recent literature show the growth in North South and South South patterns of student mobility There has also been a rise in regional mobility In what is referred to in the book as intra Africa mobility the book explores and analyzes the patterns of intra Africa mobility based on seven African countries South Africa Kenya Uganda Nigeria Ghana Senegal and Egypt The editors and contributors address three central research questions Why did the students choose the country they are studying in Why did they choose the institution they are studying in What are their academic and social experiences in these countries and their respective institutions This book is the first comprehensive exploration of intra Africa student mobility in a field that traditionally centers on the Global North

Halvorsen: Sharing Knowledge, Transforming Societies, 2023-01-10 In June 2016 the Norwegian Programme for Capacity Development in Higher Education and Research for Development Norhed hosted a conference on the theme of knowledge for development in an attempt to shift the focus of the programme towards its academic content This book follows up on that event The conference highlighted the usefulness of presenting the value of Norhed's different projects to the world showing how they improve knowledge and expand access to it through co operation A wish for more meta knowledge was also expressed and this gives rise to the following questions Is this way of co operating contributing to the growth of independent post colonial knowledge production in the South based on analyses of local data and experiences in ways that are relevant to our shared future Does the growth of academic independence as well as greater equality and the ability to develop theories different to those imposed by the better off parts of the world give rise to deeper understandings and better explanations Does it at least spread the ability to translate existing methodologies in ways that add meaning to observations of local context and data and thus enhance the relevance and influence of the academic profession locally and internationally This book in its varied contributions does not provide definite answers to these questions but it does show that Norhed is a step in the right direction Norhed is an attempt to fund collaboration within and between higher education institutions We know that both the uniqueness of this programme and ideas of how to better utilise the learning and experience emerging from it call for more elaboration and broader dissemination before we can offer further guidance on how to do things better This book is a first attempt

Quality in African Higher Education, 2025-05-19 This book examines quality higher education as a stimulus for sustainable development in selected regions of Africa Its underlying principle flaunts quality higher education as indispensable for sustainable development The first part of the florilegium discusses the context and need for sustainable development using higher education as an impetus The second part focuses on quality assurance processes and mechanisms for enhancing higher education to drive sustainable development in the continent The book will ignite interest among researchers and protagonists of higher education education management and sustainable development Contributors are Christopher Mukidi Acaali Benjamin Ahimbisibwe Arlinda Manuela dos Santos Cabral Samwel Credo Rajkumar Durairaj John Michael Etoru Nangula Iipumbu Joseph Iyanda Ngepathimo Kadhila Stella Maris Kamanzi Ambrose T Kessy Alfred Kirigha Kitawi James Lam Lagoro Gilbert Likando Felichesmi S Lyakurwa Janeth Jonathan Marwa Kennerth Matengu Lazarus Nabaho Peter Neema Abooki John Nyambe Dino Raja Adebayo Tajudeen Sanni Itumeleng I Setlhodi Tibs Jimmy Tumwesigye and Mumbi Maria Wachira Postgraduate Research Engagement in Low Resource Settings Atibuni, Dennis Zami, 2019-09-27 The general academic progression and particularly research engagement of postgraduate students is characterized by various problems such as high dropout rates longer completion times low graduation rates and high repetition or retake rates This means that there are far fewer students pursuing postgraduate studies at tertiary institutions and universities than there are at the lower levels of education Yet there is growing demand for postgraduate education given its strong projected association with socioeconomic transformation at national and international levels among developed and developing countries alike Postgraduate Research Engagement in Low Resource Settings sets out to garner strategies for fostering efficiency of research conduct among the students and faculty so as to enhance high quality output for the envisaged personal societal national and international socioeconomic transformation Covering a range of topics such as intellectual property mental health and quality assurance this book is ideal for research supervisors higher education faculty librarians educators administrators researchers academicians and students Annual Report Uganda Human Rights Commission, 2016 Public Investment Plan, 2016
