Man In Full A Tom Wolfe:

A Man in Full Tom Wolfe, 2010-04-01 Tom Wolfe's THE BONFIRE OF THE VANITIES defined an era and established Wolfe as our prime fictional chronicler of America at its most outrageous and alive. In his 1 New York Times bestseller and National Book Award finalist A MAN IN FULL the setting shifts to Atlanta, Georgia, a racially mixed late century boomtown teeming with fresh wealth, avid speculators, and worldly wise politicians. Don't miss the star-studded mini-series adaptation of A Man in Full coming soon to Netflix. Big men. Big money. Big games. Big libidos. Big trouble. The protagonist is Charles Croker, once a college football star, now a late middle-aged Atlanta real estate entrepreneur turned conglomerate king whose expansionist ambitions and outsize ego have at last hit up against reality. Charlie has a 28,000-acre quail shooting plantation, a young and demanding second wife, and a half-empty office tower with a staggering load of debt. When star running back Fareek Fanon, the pride of one of Atlanta's grimmest slums, is accused of raping an Atlanta blueblood's daughter, the city's delicate racial balance is shattered overnight. Networks of illegal Asian immigrants crisscrossing the continent, daily life behind bars, shady real estate syndicates, cast-off first wives of the corporate elite, the racially charged politics of college sports—Wolfe shows us the disparate worlds of contemporary America with all the verve, wit, and insight that have made him our most phenomenal, most admired contemporary novelist. A Man in Full is a 1998 National Book Award Finalist for Fiction.

A Man In Full Tom Wolfe, 2018-06-21 NOW A MAJOR NETFLIX SERIES A dissection of greed-obsessed America a decade after The Bonfire of the Vanities and on the cusp of the millennium from the master chronicler of American culture Tom Wolfe Charlie Croker once a fabled college football star is now a late middle-aged Atlanta real estate entrepreneur turned conglomerate king His expansionist ambitions and outsize ego have at last hit up against reality Charlie has a 28,000-acre quail shooting plantation a young and demanding second wife and a half-empty downtown tower with a staggering load of debt Wolfe shows us contemporary America with all the verve wit and insight that have made him our most admired novelist Enthralling enough even to satisfy The Bonfire of the Vanities devotees humane and redemptive Sunday Times Men in Flight Egil Ussing, 2003 South to A New Place Suzanne W. Jones, Sharon Monteith, 2002-11-01 Taking Albert Murray's South to a Very Old Place as a starting point contributors to this exciting collection continue the work of critically and creatively remapping the South through their freewheeling studies of southern literature and culture Appraising representations of the South within a context that is postmodern, diverse, widely inclusive, and international the essays present multiple ways of imagining the South and examine both new places and old landscapes in an attempt to tie the mythic southern balloon down to earth In his foreword an insightful discussion of numerous Souths and the ways they are perceived Richard Gray explains one of the key goals of the book to open up to scrutiny the literary and cultural practice that has come to be known as regionalism Part I Surveying the Territory theorizes definitions of place and region and includes an analysis of southern literary regionalism from the 1930s to the present and an exploration of southern popular culture In Mapping the Region essayists examine different representations of rural landscapes and small towns cities and suburbs as well as liminal zones in which new immigrants make their homes Reflecting the contributors transatlantic perspective Making Global Connections challenges notions of southern distinctiveness by reading the region through the comparative frameworks of Southern Italy East Germany Latin America and the United Kingdom and via a range of texts and contexts from early reconciliation romances to Faulkner's fictions about race to the more recent parody of southern mythmaking Alice Randall's The Wind Done Gone Together these essays explore the roles that economic racial and ideological tensions have played in the formation of southern identity through varying representations of locality moving regionalism toward a new place in southern studies Tot un home Tom Wolfe, 1999-01-01

The Postsouthern Sense of Place in Contemporary Fiction Martyn Bone, 2014-01-13 For generations southern novelists and critics have grappled with a concept that is widely seen as a trademark of their literature a strong attachment to geography or a sense of place In the 1930s the Agrarians accorded special meaning to rural life particularly the farm in their definitions of southern identity For them the South seemed an organic and rooted region in contrast to the North where real estate development and urban sprawl evoked a faceless raw capitalism By the end of the twentieth century however economic and social forces had converged to create a modernized South How have writers responded to this phenomenon Is there still a sense of place in the South or perhaps a distinctly postsouthern sense of place Martyn Bone innovatively draws upon postmodern thinking to consider the various perspectives that southern writers have brought to the concept of place and to look at its fate in a national and global context He begins with a revisionist assessment of the Agrarians who failed in their attempts to turn their proprietary ideal of the small farm into actual policy but whose broader rural aesthetic lived on in the work of neo Agrarian writers including William Faulkner and Eudora Welty By the 1950s adherence to this aesthetic was causing southern writers and critics to lose sight of the social reality of a changing South Bone turns to more recent works that do respond to the impact of capitalist spatial development on the South and on the nation generally including that self declared international city Atlanta Close readings of novels by Robert Penn Warren Walker Percy Richard Ford Anne Rivers Siddons Tom Wolfe and Toni Cade Bambara illuminate evolving ideas about capital land labor and class while introducing southern literary studies into wider debates around social cultural and literary geography Bone concludes his remarkably rich book by considering works of Harry Crews and Barbara Kingsolver that suggest the southern sense of place may be not only post Agrarian or postsouthern but also transnational

The American Popular Novel After World War II David Willbern, 2013-03-29 Through the perspectives of selected best selling novels from the end of World War II to the end of the 20th century including The Catcher in the Rye To Kill a Mockingbird The Godfather Jaws Beloved The Silence of the Lambs and Jurassic Park this book examines the crucial issues the U S was experiencing during those decades These novels represent the voices of popular conversations as Americans considered issues of family class racism and sexism feminism economic ambition sexual violence war law religion and science Through the windows of fiction the book surveys the Cold War and anti communism the prefeminist era of the 1950s and the sexual revolution of the 1970s forms of corporate power in the 1960s and 1980s the traumatic legacies of slavery and Vietnam the American fascination with lawyers cops and criminals alternate styles of romance in the era of late capitalism our abiding distrust of science and our steadfast wonder about the Great Mysteries The Pursuit of Happiness and the American Regime Elizabeth Amato,2018-02-28 The Declaration of Independence claims that individuals need liberty to pursue happiness but provides little guidance on the what of happiness Happiness studies and liberal theory are incomplete guides Happiness studies offer insights into what makes people happy but happiness policy risks becoming doctrinaire Liberal theory is better on personal liberty but weak on the what of happiness My argument is that American novelists are surer guides on the pursuit of happiness Treated as political thinkers my book offers a close reading of four American novelists Tom Wolfe Walker Percy Edith Wharton and Nathaniel Hawthorne and their critique of the pursuit of happiness With a critical and friendly eye they present the shortcomings of pursuing happiness in a liberal nation but also present alternatives and correctives possible in America Our novelists point us toward each other in friendship as our greatest resource to guide us towards happiness Off the Books J. Peder Zane,2015-04-06 Head Off the Books in this collection of newspaper columns where J Peder Zane uses classic and contemporary literature to explore American culture and politics The book review editor for the Raleigh North Carolina News Observer from 1996 to 2009 Zane demonstrates that good books are essential for understanding ourselves and the world around us The one hundred and thirty columns gathered in Off the Books find that sweet spot where literature s eternal values meet the day s current events Together they offer a literary overview of the ideas issues and events shaping our culture from 9 11 and the struggle for gay rights to the decline of high culture and the rise of sensationalism and solipsism As they plumb and draw from the work of leading writers from William Faulkner Knut Hamsun and Eudora Welty to Don DeLillo Lydia Millet and Philip Roth these columns make an argument not just about the pleasure of books but about their very necessity in our lives and culture The Economist ,1926
