European hotel cooking and his menu made up of some eighty regional specialties was a true love letter to American food Lake Trout from Tahoe Hot biscuits Southern style Canvasback duck from Baltimore Black bass from the Mississippi When food writer Andrew Beahrs first read Twain s menu in the classic work A Tramp Abroad he noticed the dishes were regional in the truest sense of the word drawn fresh from grasslands woods and waters in a time before railroads had dissolved the culinary lines between Hannibal Missouri and San Francisco These dishes were all local all wild and all Beahrs feared had been lost in the shift to industrialized food In Twain s Feast Beahrs sets out to discover whether eight of these forgotten regional specialties can still be found on American tables tracing Twain s footsteps as he goes Twain s menu it turns out was also a memoir and a map The dishes he yearned for were all connected to cherished moments in his life from the New Orleans croakers he loved as a young man on the Mississippi to the maple syrup he savored in Connecticut with his family during his final lonely years Tracking Twain s foods leads Beahrs from the dwindling prairie of rural Illinois to a six hundred pound coon supper in Arkansas to the biggest native oyster reef in San Francisco Bay He finds pockets of the country where Twain s favorite foods still exist or where intrepid farmers fishermen and conservationists are trying to bring them back In Twain s Feast he reminds us what we ve lost as these wild foods have disappeared from our tables and what we stand to gain from their return Weaving together passages from Twain s famous works and Beahrs s own adventures Twain s Feast takes us on a journey into America s past to a time when foods taken fresh from grasslands woods and waters were at the heart of American cooking
