The Limits to Capital in Spain G. Charnock, T. Purcell, R. Ribera-Fumaz, 2014-02-18 Spain is at the epicentre of a crisis that threatens the future of the Eurozone This book explains the deep historical and structural roots of the current crisis in Spain It analyses the nexus between European circuits of financial capital urbanisation and the emergent dynamics of state austerity and popular revolt

Politics of the Global Economic Crisis Sreeram Chaulia, 2014-03-21 A crucial commentary on the worst global economic crisis since the Great Depression this book argues for Three Rs Regulation Responsibility and Radicalism i e state regulation of finance state responsibility towards society and radical social movements to fight for economic justice It will interest scholars and researchers in international political economy politics international relations and economics as also policymakers and the informed general reader

The Political Economy of City Branding Ari-Veikko Anttiroiko, 2014-02-24 Globalization affects urban communities in many ways One of its manifestations is increased intercity competition which compels cities to increase their attractiveness in terms of capital entrepreneurship information expertise and consumption This competition takes place in an asymmetric field with cities trying to find the best possible ways of using their natural and created assets the latter including a naturally evolving reputation or consciously developed competitive identity or brand The Political Economy of City Branding discusses this phenomenon from the perspective of numerous post industrial cities in North America Europe East Asia and Australasia Special attention is given to local economic development policy and industrial profiling and global city rankings are used to provide empirical evidence for cities characteristics and positions in the global urban hierarchy On top of this social and urban challenges such as creative class struggle are also discussed The core message of the book is that cities should apply the tools of city branding in their industrial promotion and specialization but at the same time take into account the special nature of their urban communities and be open and inclusive in their brand policies in order to ensure optimal results This book will be of interest to scholars and practitioners working in the areas of local economic development urban planning public management and branding
