NOTES

U.S. Army Europe observes U.S. federal holidays and typically authorizes a training holiday to coincide with them in order to provide at least one long four-day weekend per month.

Soldiers should always confirm with their local chain of command whether or not they have a federal or training holiday off. They are not guaranteed.

Local nation (Belgian, German and Italian) holidays are included for planning purposes. They may not be celebrated in each area of a particular country. These are not days off for uniformed personnel.

Army-Navy-Air Force Register and Defense Times, 1911 From Migrant to Worker Michele Ford, 2019-04-15 What happens when local unions begin to advocate for the rights of temporary migrant workers asks Michele Ford in her sweeping study of seven Asian countries Until recently unions in Hong Kong Japan Malaysia Singapore South Korea Taiwan and Thailand were uniformly hostile towards foreign workers but Ford deftly shows how times and attitudes have begun to change Now she argues NGOs and the Global Union Federations are encouraging local unions to represent and advocate for these peripheral workers and in some cases succeeding From Migrant to Worker builds our understanding of the role the international labor movement and local unions have had in developing a movement for migrant workers labor rights Ford examines the relationship between different kinds of labor movement actors and the constraints imposed on those actors by resource flows contingency and local context Her conclusions show that in countries Hong Kong Malaysia and Thailand where resource flows and local factors give the Global Union Federations more influence local unions have become much more engaged with migrant workers But in countries Japan and Taiwan for example where they have little effect there has been little progress While much has changed Ford forces us to see that labor migration in
