March 2014 Economics Paper For Grade 1:

Playing with Fire Yilmaz Akyüz, 2017-06-30 Starting in the early 1990s many emerging and developing economies EDEs liberalized their capital accounts allowing greater freedom for international lenders and investors to enter their markets as well as for their residents to borrow and invest in international financial markets Despite recurrent crises liberalization has continued and in fact accelerated in the new millennium Integration has been greatly facilitated by progressively looser monetary policy in the United States notably the policies that culminated in debt crises in the United States and Europe and the ultra easy monetary policy adopted in response Not only have their traditional cross border linkages been deepened and external balance sheets expanded rapidly but also foreign presence in their domestic financial markets and the presence of their nationals in foreign markets have reached unprecedented levels As a result new channels have emerged for the transmission of financial shocks from global boom bust cycles Almost all EDEs are now vulnerable irrespective of their balance of payments external debt net foreign assets and international reserve positions although these play an important role in the way such shocks could impinge on them This is a matter for concern since the multilateral system still lacks mechanisms for orderly resolution of financial crises with international dimensions Playing with Fire provides an empirical account of deeper integration of EDEs into the global financial system and discusses its implications for stability and growth focusing on the role of policies in the new millennium in both EDEs and the United States and Europe The Complacent Class Tyler Cowen, 2017-02-28 A Wall Street Journal and Washington Post Bestseller Tyler Cowen's blog Marginal Revolution is the first thing I read every morning And his brilliant new book The Complacent Class has been on my nightstand after I devoured it in one sitting I am at round the clock Cowen saturation right now Malcolm Gladwell Since Alexis de Tocqueville restlessness has been accepted as a signature American trait Our willingness to move take risks and adapt to change have produced a dynamic economy and a tradition of innovation from Ben Franklin to Steve Jobs The problem according to legendary blogger economist and best selling author Tyler Cowen is that Americans today have broken from this tradition we're working harder than ever to avoid change We're moving residences less marrying people more like ourselves and choosing our music and our mates based on algorithms that wall us off from anything that might be too new or too different Match.com matches us in love Spotify and Pandora match us in music Facebook matches us to just about everything else Of course this matching culture brings tremendous positives music we like partners who make us happy neighbors who want the same things We're more comfortable But according to Cowen there are significant collateral downsides attending this comfort among them heightened inequality and segregation and decreased incentives to innovate and create The Complacent Class argues that this cannot go on forever We are postponing change due to our near sightedness and extreme desire for comfort but ultimately this will make change when it comes harder The forces unleashed by the Great Stagnation will eventually lead to a major fiscal and budgetary crisis impossibly expensive rentals for our most attractive cities worsening of residential segregation and a decline in our work ethic The only way to avoid this difficult future is for Americans to force themselves out of their comfortable slumber to embrace their restless tradition again

The Ambivalence of Power in the Twenty-First Century Economy Vadim Radaev,Zoya Kotelnikova,2022-07-07 The Ambivalence of Power in the Twenty First Century Economy contributes to the understanding of the ambivalent nature of power oscillating between conflict and cooperation public and private global and local formal and informal and does so from an empirical perspective It offers a collection of country based cases as well as critically assesses the existing conceptions of power from a cross disciplinary perspective The diverse analyses of power at the macro meso or micro levels allow the volume to highlight the complexity of political economy in the twenty first century Each chapter addresses key elements of that political economy from the ambivalence of the cases of former communist countries that do not conform with the grand narratives about democracy and markets to the dual utility of new technologies such as face recognition thus providing mounting evidence for the centrality of an understanding of ambivalence in the analysis of power especially in the modern state power driven capitalism Anchored in economic sociology and political economy this volume aims to make visible the dimensions of power embedded in economic practices The chapters are predominantly based on post communist practices but this divergent experience is relevant to comparative studies of how power and economy are interrelated

Rankings and the Reshaping of Higher Education Ellen Hazelkorn,2015-03-23 University rankings have gained popularity around the world and are now a significant factor shaping reputation This second edition updates Ellen Hazelkorn s first comprehensive study of rankings from a global perspective drawing in new original research and extensive analysis It is essential reading for policymakers managers and scholars

The Unmaking of Arab Socialism Ali Kadri,2016-10-01 Conditions of malnutrition conflict or a combination of both characterize many Arab countries but this was not always so As in much of the developing world the immediate post independence period represented an age of hope and relative prosperity But imperialism did not sleep while these countries developed and it soon intervened to destroy these post independence achievements The two principal defeats and losses of territory to Israel in 1967 and 1973 as well as the others that followed left in their wake more than the destruction of assets and the loss of human lives the Arab World lost its ideology of resistance The Unmaking of Arab Socialism is an attempt to understand the reasons for Arab world s developmental descent from the pinnacle of Arab socialism to its present desolate conditions through an examination of the post colonial histories of Egypt Syria and Iraq

Deepening Neoliberalism, Austerity, and Crisis Julien Mercille,Enda Murphy,2015-07-07 From bank bailouts to austerity Europe s and Ireland s response to the economic crisis has been engineered specifically to shift the burden of paying for the crisis onto ordinary citizens while investors financiers bankers and the privileged are protected The authors expose the class based nature of Ireland s crisis resolution

Consumer Involvement in Private EU Competition Law Enforcement Maria Ioannidou,2015-09-03 Despite the growing importance of consumer welfare in EU competition law debates there remains a significant disconnect between rhetoric and reality as consumers and their interests still play only an ancillary role in this area of law Consumer Involvement in Private EU Competition Law Enforcement is the first monograph to exclusively address this highly topical and much debated subject providing a timely and wide ranging examination of the need for more active consumer participation in competition law Written by an expert in the field it sets out a comprehensive framework of policy implications and arguments for greater involvement positioning the debate in the context of a broader EU law perspective It outlines pragmatic approaches to remedial and procedural measures that would enable consumer empowerment Finally the book identifies key institutional and political obstacles to the adoption of effective measures and suggests alternative routes to enhance the role of consumers in private competition law enforcement The book s innovative approach combining normative analysis and practical solutions make it invaluable for academics policy makers and practitioners in the field
