Civil-Service Examinations R. R. Bowker, 2017-10-16 Excerpt from Civil Service Examinations Being Question Papers With Actual Answers of Successful and Unsuccessful Candidates Union and each city or town They ought to get the best service at a fair rate but they have often paid the highest prices for the poorest kind of work Civil service reform had two things to accomplish first to prevent the government service the service of the whole people from being misused for politicians or parties second to provide for choosing fit men for the public service on truly democratic principles Usually after each election the politicians who had won wanted places for their friends They began this cry as long ago as the time of Thomas Jefferson But Jefferson refused to remove good officers unless they had been violent partisans The party workers nevertheless kept up their pressure and by the time of Jackson it was recognized that to the victors belong the spoils This meant that the half of the American people which won in an election were entitled to look upon the other half as victims of war This was a very un american um demo cratic un republican spirit About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works
