Mary Slessor of Calabar William Pringle Livingstone, 1984     The Quest for Gender Equity in Leadership KeumJu Jewel Hyun, Diphus Chosefu Chemorion, 2016-07-29 The call for gender equity in leadership has become a global concern From a Christian perspective all forms of gender prejudice are sinful because they violate God s intention for creating both men and women in God s image Although many Christian authors have published books and journal articles to address gender based injustice very few publications have approached the subject from an African perspective This book is meant to fill the existing gap With a specific reference to the African context this book explores the phenomenon of equity in leadership from various dimensions such as African culture and traditional religion church tradition biblical interpretation as well as from the perspective of contemporary socio economic and political realities in Africa By giving vivid examples of success stories of men and women working together the authors have demythologized the view that women cannot be leaders In addition this book is intended for general readership by Christian men and women throughout the globe For universities and colleges that teach gender studies as a subject the book can serve as a class text or reference resource Seminaries and theological institutions will also find it handy for training and mentoring Christians to promote equity in the church ministry business and family     Holy Invitations Jeannette A. Bakke, 2000-10-01 Learn how to nurture your awareness of and response to God s love and guidance through the historical practice of spiritual direction     Rescuing African Marriages in the Diaspora Abraham Kicha, 2012-11-12 African marriages in the Diaspora are in trouble The divorce rate among Africans living out of Africa is increasing minute after minute leaving many African families in the pool of blood The center cant hold any longer and Africans are wondering how they can face the monster devastating their marriages in the Diaspora Rescuing

African Marriages in the Diaspora walks through the process of marriage from the time of just wondering whether to ask Will you marry me and Should I say yes to him to the time you are married and living together Rescuing African Marriages in the Diaspora navigates through the wild cultural wind that blows against African marriages in the Diaspora and anchors safely in the commitment to stay married until death do us part The Congregationalist and Christian World ,1916 The Congregationalist and Advance ,1919 Daughters of the Church Ruth A. Tucker,Walter L. Liefeld,2010-08-10 Rich in historical events and colorfully written this fascinating account of women in the church spans nearly two thousand years of church history It tells of events and aspirations determination and disappointment patience and achievement that mark the history of daughters of the church from the time of Jesus to the present The authors have endeavored to present an objective story The very fact that readers may find themselves surprised now and again by the prominent role of women in certain events and movements proves an inequality that historical narrative has often been guilty of This is a book about women It is a setting straight off the record a restoring of balance to history that has repeatedly played down the significance of the contributions of women to the theology the witness the movements and the growth of the church An exegetical study of relevant Scripture passages offers stimulating thought for discussion and for serious reevaluation of historical givens This volume is enriched by pictures appendixes bibliography and indexes Like many of the women whose stories it tells this book has a subdued strength that should not be underestimated The Gospel Trumpet ,1920 The Congregationalist ,1920 The Alliance Weekly ,1929 The Watchman-examiner ,1919 The Book News Monthly ,1916 International Journal of Religious Education ,1939 Missionary Tidings ,1918
