Picturing Place Joan Schwartz, James Ryan, 2021-10-30 The advent of photography opened up new worlds to 19th century viewers who were able to visualize themselves and the world beyond in unprecedented detail But the emphasis on the photography's objectivity masked the subjectivity inherent in deciding what to record from what angle and when This text examines this inherent subjectivity Drawing on photographs that come from personal albums corporate archives commercial photographers government reports and which were produced as art as record as data the work shows how the photography shaped and was shaped by geographical concerns Nouveau Paris Match ,2008-05 Beijing Review ,2009-09 Contemporary Photography in France Olga Smith,2022-10-19 This compelling publication traces the broad arc of photography's development in France from the 1970s to the present day A decade by decade account reveals unexpected points of convergence between practices that are not usually considered in a comparative perspective These include photographic practices in contemporary art documentary photojournalism and fashion Author Olga Smith sets these practices in dialogue with French philosophy the writings of Roland Barthes Jean Baudrillard and Jacques Rancière to produce an innovative study of the intersections between the photographic image text practice and theory This analysis is guided by an understanding of photography as deeply engaged with historical cultural and intellectual events that defined French national experience in the contemporary period Landscape provides a particular focus to study issues of key significance including national identification colonial past legacies of modernization and environmental breakdown MTR; Music Trades Review ,1889 Paris match ,2008 Henri Cartier-Bresson Clément Chéroux,2014 This is an indispensable work for lovers of photography and admirers of Henri Cartier Bresson whose influence continues to endure so powerfully today In addition to some of his best known photographs here are many seldom seen or unpublished images and some rarities in colour as well as black and white This is an indispensable work for lovers of photography and admirers of Henri Cartier Bresson whose influence continues to endure so powerfully today His work embraced art politics revolution and war But more powerful than any of these overarching themes was his evident concern for the human individual at every social level Cartier Bresson's observations of the effects of poverty and revolution around the world led directly to his pioneering photojournalism and his co founding of Magnum Photos He also became renowned for his penetrating portraits of the most prominent figures of his time Cartier Bresson's biographer Pierre Assouline called him the eye of the century A must for lovers of photography The Mail on Sunday Artbibliographies Modern ,2005 Flash! Kate Flint,2017-11-28 Flash presents a fascinating cultural history of flash photography from its mid nineteenth century beginnings to the present day All photography requires light but the light of flash photography is quite distinctive artificial sudden shocking intrusive and extraordinarily bright Associated with revelation and wonder it has been linked to the sublimity of lightning Yet it has also been reviled it's inseparable from anxieties about intrusion and violence it creates a visual disturbance and its effects are often harsh and create exaggerated contrasts Flash explores flash's power to reveal shocking social conditions its impact on the representation of race its illumination of what would otherwise remain hidden in darkness and its capacity to put on display the most mundane corners of everyday life It looks at flash's distinct aesthetics examines how paparazzi chase celebrities how flash is intimately linked to crime how flash has been used to light up and interrupt countless family gatherings how flash can stop time allowing one to photograph rapidly moving objects or freeze in a strobe and it considers the biggest flash of all the atomic bomb Examining the work of professionals and amateurs news hounds and art photographers photographers of crime and of wildlife the volume builds a picture of flash's place in popular culture and its role in literature and film Generously illustrated throughout Flash brings out the central role of this medium to the history of photography and challenges some commonly held ideas about the nature of photography itself Collection Photographs Quentin Bajac, Clément Chéroux, 2007 The Centre Pompidou in Paris houses one of the greatest collections of twentieth century photography in the world This book comprises a comprehensive catalogue of the collection 350 photographs by 283 of the most famous artists and photographers to engage with the medium from Drikkol Abbott Strand Evans Brancusi Rodtchenko and Abbott via Alvarez Bravo Man Ray Boubat and Klein to Mapplethorpe Sherman Struth Gursky and Goldin The book is comprised of 6 sections each introduced by a short essay and proposes a new history of photography through the collections of the Centre Pompidou Art Photography Now Susan Bright, 2006 This survey presents the work of eighty of the most important and best loved artist photographers in the world today Susan Bright has organized the book into seven sections portrait landscape narrative object fashion document and city each of which explores the diverse subjects styles and methods adopted by artists Introductions to each section outline the genres and consider why photographers are attracted to certain themes and how issues like memory time objectivity politics identity and the everyday are tied to certain approaches Each photographer's work is then presented in sequence with commentaries by the author highlighting the art's most important aspects Quotations from the artists appear alongside to offer valuable insights into their motivations inspirations and intentions inside front cover A hand-book for travellers in Devon & Cornwall [by T.C. Paris]. Thomas Clifton Paris, 1872 Small World Martin Parr, 2007 Revised and updated edition of Parr's sought after classic first published in 1996 It is a biting funny satire in which Parr looks at tourism worldwide exposing the increasingly homogenous global culture where in the search for different cultures those same cultures are destroyed The issues raised by Parr a decade ago are even more relevant today A member of the prestigious Magnum photo agency Parr is one of the best known photographers in the world today He has published innumerable books and his work has been exhibited worldwide The British Journal of Photography, 2008 The Thrill of the Chase Paul Martineau, 2016-03-15 Samuel J Wagstaff Jr 1921-1987 amassed an extraordinary collection of 26 000 photographs between 1973 and 1984 recognizing that photography was an undervalued art form on which he might have a profound impact as a collector He was mainly attracted to photographs that stimulated his imagination and his taste ran toward the idiosyncratic images that surprised him chiefly because he had never seen them before In choosing the 147 works reproduced in this volume Paul Martineau selected masterpieces as well as images from obscure sources daguerreotypes cartes de visite and stereographs plus mug shots medical photographs and works by unknown makers The latter category contains some of the most outstanding objects in the collection demonstrating Wagstaff's willingness to position unfamiliar images alongside works by established masters as well as underrepresented contemporary artists of the time including Jo Ann Callis William Garnett and Edmund Teske This book is published to accompany an eponymous exhibition on view at the J Paul Getty Museum from March 15 to July 31 2016 at the Wadsworth Atheneum in Hartford CT from September 10 to December 11 2016 and at the Portland Museum of Art in Portland ME from February 1 to April 30 2017 L'ombre du temps Régis Durand, Michel Poivert, 2004
