Chronic Disease Notes & Reports ,1990      CREATING GREAT VISITOR EXPERIENCES Stephanie Weaver,2012-03-15
Museum and other non profit professionals have begun to realize that the complete visitor experience is the key to repeat attendance successful fundraising and building audience loyalty Taking lessons learned by successful experience shapers in the for profit world Stephanie Weaver distills this knowledge for museums and other organizations which depend on visitor satisfaction for success Is your institution welcoming Are the bathrooms clean Does the staff communicate well Are there enough places to sit These practical matters may mean more to creating a loyal following than any exhibit or program the institution develops Weaver breaks the visitor experience down to 8 steps and provides practical guidance to museums and related institutions on how to create optimal visitor experiences for each of them In a workshop like format she uses multiple examples exercises and resource links to walk the reader through the process      Parents ,1996      The Biopolitics of Breast Cancer Maren Klawiter,2008 For nearly forty years feminists and patient activists have argued that medicine is a deeply individualizing and depoliticizing institution According to this view medical practices are incidental to people s transformation from patients to patient activists The Biopolitics of Breast Cancer turns this understanding upside down Maren Klawiter analyzes the evolution of the breast cancer movement to show the broad social impact of how diseases come to be medically managed and publicly administered Examining surgical procedures adjuvant therapies early detection campaigns and the rise in discourses of risk Klawiter demonstrates that these practices created a change in the social relations if not the mortality rate of breast cancer that initially inhibited but later enabled collective action Her research focuses on the emergence and development of new forms of activism that range from grassroots patient empowerment to environmental activism and corporate funded breast cancer awareness The Biopolitics of Breast Cancer opens a window onto a larger set of changes currently transforming medically advanced societies and ultimately challenges our understanding of the origins politics and future of the breast cancer movement Maren Klawiter holds a PhD in sociology from the University of California Berkeley She is currently pursuing a law degree at Yale University      Working Woman ,2001      Foundations for Adult Reading Sharon Fear,Mary K. Hawley,Luz Nuncio Schick,1991      Ebony ,2001      What's Next? Rena Pederson,R. Lee Smith,2001 A renowned journalist explores the lives of successful women between the ages of 40 and 65 who have redefined themselves in midlife and found fulfillment Each chapter ends with a series of questions and suggestions that will help readers learn from past experience      Don't Go to the Cosmetics Counter Without Me Paula Begoun,1998 From Avon to Yves St Laurent Begoun s product by product reviews reveal the truth behind cosmetic companies hype and hyperbole New to this edition is a purse size removable workbook so readers can take notes on specific products they want to try This fourth edition reviews more than 10 000 products from 125 different cosmetics lines with a new section on anti aging products      Staffing the Public Service Albert P. Maslow,1983      For All the Wrong Reasons Mary K. Novello,1998 All the Wrong Reasons reveals the historical political and philosophical route which has formed today's government school system and argues for separating education from the state. It explains that the establishment of government schools grew out of nationalistic movements which took place in western culture during the nineteenth century due to the desire for freedom. The author discusses the major influences on the development of contemporary education including progressivist educational innovators such as John Dewey, Bronson Alcott, Leo Tolstoy, Friedrich Froebel and Johann Pestalozzi as well as their predecessors in romantic philosophy Georg W. F. Hegel and Jean Jacques Rousseau. She examines the collectivist philosophy rooted in Marxism present in the educational system and how these philosophies promoted self absorption and self revelation which have led to a coercive and monopolistic government school system. The ETS Test Collection Catalog, 1993

Forty profiles of individuals, companies and products that trace their unusual success stories and why. The Insulin-resistance Diet Cheryle R. Hart, Mary Kay Grossman, 2001. Explains how insulin resistance causes weight gain and how to correct this with the link and balance eating method and includes recipes and tips for eating out. Business Essentials Ronald J. Ebert, Ricky W. Griffin, 1998. Appropriate for Introduction to Business. The revision of Essentials continues building on the key ideas of price and length. Instructors will now have time to cover all the necessary topics and also use the various support materials. The new briefer second edition continues to provide the essentials of business but also includes more updated current examples and references that help the student better apply his knowledge to real companies. Each chapter contains tables, photographs and figures carefully chosen to illustrate in a visually appealing way the points and messages of the chapter. Important topics such as those presented in the following examples reinforce the essentials approach. Chapters 1 and 2 present business concepts to students and in Chapters 3, 4, 5 the legal, ethical and global issues are introduced. Chapter 6, 7, 8 explore the management side and Chapters 9, 10 further discuss developing the human resource skills necessary to good employee relations. Chapter 12 expertly covers accounting and information systems. Chapters 13, 14, 15 combine the marketing aspects of producing goods and services. Chapters 16, 17 focus on the financial aspects of the banking security and investment community. Psychoeducational Diagnosis of Exceptional Children Milton V. Wisland, 1973
