Mass-Marketing Fraud International Mass-Marketing Fraud Worki,International Mass-Marketing International Mass-Marketing Fraud Working Group,2014-10-31 Mass marketing fraud is a term increasingly used around the world to refer to fraud schemes that use mass communications media including telephones the Internet mass mailings television radio and even personal contact to contact solicit and obtain money funds or other items of value from multiple victims in one or more jurisdictions Although law enforcement and regulatory authorities often use a variety of names to refer to the phenomenon including advance fee fraud 419 fraud Internet fraud and telemarketing fraud the growing profusion of labels for these fraud schemes tends to obscure the fact that such schemes often are conducted using multiple communications channels to identify and contact victims as well as identical or highly similar methods of operation that are not dependent on a single communications medium Understanding White-Collar Crime Michael L. Benson,Sally S. Simpson,2014-11-20

Unlike other books of its kind Understanding White Collar Crime An Opportunity Perspective uses a coherent theoretical perspective in its coverage of white collar crime Using opportunity perspective or the assumption that all crimes depend on offenders having some sort of opportunity to commit an offense allows the authors to uncover the processes leading up to white collar crimes and offer potential solutions to this rampant issue without being reductive in their treatment of the topic With this second edition Benson and Simpson have greatly expanded their coverage to include new case studies substantive materials and an annotated appendix of online resources to make this a core book for courses on white collar crime
