

Chapter 1: Managerial Accounting and the Business Environment

Solutions to Questions

Exercise 1-1 (20 minutes)

- i. Developing sales estimates of a product for use in the annual budget for a product is a planning activity since doing so will establish a goal for sales levels in the coming year.
- ii. The review of the monthly quality control reports is a controlling activity aimed at determining whether production processes are operating as planned. Identifying the team members to investigate the problem is a directing and motivating activity since it involves assigning tasks to specific individuals. The selection of team members is also a decision-making activity since the manager will need to determine which employees are best suited (e.g., which ones have the necessary skills, the time available, etc.) to conduct the investigation.
- iii. Choosing from the two design alternatives for the speakers is a decision-making activity. It could also be argued that this is a planning activity since it will affect which speaker design the company decides to offer to its customers in future periods.
- iv. Reviewing the monthly performance report is a controlling activity. Determining the production schedule in the coming months is both a planning and directing and motivating activity since it involves the future scheduling of day-to-day activities related to manufacturing the televisions. Evaluating how to motivate retailers to improve sales is also a directing and motivating activity and has an element of planning as well assuming changes are going to be made to the current incentive system. The evaluation also involves decision-making with respect to continuing or discontinuing the
