The Changing Military Balance in the Koreas and Northeast Asia Anthony H. Cordesman,Aaron Lin,2015-07-07 The tensions between the Koreas and the potential involvement of China Japan Russia and the United States in a Korean conflict create a nearly open ended spectrum of possible conflicts These conflicts could range from posturing and threats to a major conventional conflict on the Korean peninsula with intervention by outside powers to the extreme of nuclear conflict The Korean balance is also affected by the uncertain mix of cooperation and competition between the United States and China particularly with the U S pivot toward Asia and the steady modernization of Chinese forces This new volume up to date through Spring 2015 provides a detailed examination of the military forces in Northeast Asia North and South Korea China Russia Japan and the United States setting those forces in the larger geostrategic context

The Gulf Military Balance Anthony H. Cordesman,Robert M. Shelala,Omar Mohamed,2014-03-12 The United States faces major challenges in dealing with Iran the threat of terrorism and the tide of political instability in the Arabian Peninsula The presence of some of the world s largest reserves of oil and natural gas vital shipping lanes and Shia populations throughout the region have made the peninsula the focal point of US and Iranian strategic competition Moreover large youth populations high unemployment rates and political systems with highly centralized power bases have posed other economic political and security challenges that the Gulf states must address and that the United States must take into consideration when forming strategy and policy
