Le Tour De France Des Alternatives:

Critical Strategies for Ecological Architectures Mathias Rollot, 2025-09-30 This book addresses the alarming state of the planet and considers a potential new role for architecture in the Anthropocene It explores ways in which architecture could contribute to solutions as well as how the discipline should prepare for the future Drawing on other disciplines such as bioregionalism animalism and decolonial thinking it demonstrates how architecture can extend its relevance The book introduces new theoretical approaches that encourage completely different ways of thinking showing and designing It introduces concepts such as human energy decolonial bioregionalism and emancipatory architecture which serve to challenge anthropocentric theories and promote more sustainable architectural practices This book makes an ethical appeal to architects and non architects alike proposing new strategies for thinking teaching and creating a wholly different kind of architecture for a rapidly changing world In doing so it addresses the challenges facing contemporary societies and ecological changes demonstrating how the ecological humanities can transform architecture as a field and radically alter its history references values and aims The book aims to contribute to a metamorphosis of architecture towards greater ecological and emancipatory capacity and towards pluriversal bioregions Inhabiting the Earth Martin Locret-Collet, Simon Springer, Jennifer Mateer, Maleea Acker, 2021-10-25

Over the last several decades scholars and practitioners have progressively acknowledged that we cannot consider cities as the place where nature stops anymore resulting in urban environments being increasingly appreciated and theorized as hybrids between nature and culture entities made of socio ecological processes in constant transformation Spanning the fields of political ecology environmental studies and sociology this new direction in urban theory emerged in concert with global concern for sustainability and environmental justice This volume explores the notion that connecting with nature holds the key to a more progressive and liberatory politics
