Le Pavillon Des Jades:

Gustav Mahler, Songs and Symphonies of Life and Death Donald Mitchell, 1986-01-01 The third volume of Mitchell's epic account of the composer and his works concentrates on the vocal music and in particular on some of his most famous original and best loved compositions

Encountering China's Past Lintao Qi, Shani Tobias, 2022-04-12 This book features articles contributed by leading scholars and scholar translators in Translation Studies and Chinese Studies from around the world. Written in English, the articles examine the translation of classical Chinese literature from classics to poetry from drama to fiction into a range of Asian and European languages including Japanese, English, French, Czech, and Danish. The collection therefore provides a platform for readers to make comparative and critical readings of scholarship across languages, cultures, disciplines, and genres. With its integration of textual and paratextual materials, this collection of essays is of potential interest to not only academics in the area of Translation Studies, Chinese Studies, Literary Studies, and Intercultural Communications, but it may also appeal to communities outside the academia who simply enjoy reading about literature.

Chinese Songs in a French Key Pauline Yu, 2025-08-19 In early 1867, a book of poems stunned the French literary world. Titled The Book of Jade, it featured Chinese calligraphy and named ancient Chinese poets as sources, leaving readers uncertain whether the collection was a translation or a French author's invention. Though the book was published under a pseudonym, the author was quickly recognized as Judith Gautier, the young daughter of a prominent writer. Resembling neither contemporary French verse nor any conventional translation of the day, The Book of Jade opened the eyes of readers throughout Europe to classical Chinese poetry. Chinese Songs in a French Key tells the extraordinary story of the birth, rebirth, and rich afterlife of The Book of Jade. Pauline Yu traces the research and creative process behind the book, including Gautier's collaboration with a Chinese refugee known as Tin Tun Ling. She shows, through juxtapositions with original Chinese texts, how Gautier's imaginative strategies conveyed core elements of Chinese poetry to a European audience. Yu explores how the work's influence reverberated across French letters, Anglo-American modernist poetry, and the international history of translation. The story also unfolds within Gautier's network of luminaries such as Victor Hugo, Richard Wagner, and John Singer Sargent, and against the backdrop of France's discovery of China through scholarship and plunder. Drawing attention to Gautier's audacity and accomplishments, this deeply researched and elegantly written book provides new perspectives on the surprising routes cultural transmission can take.

Unknown 未知, Fin-de-siècle Russia and Chinese Aesthetics Jinyi Chu, 2024-08-30 Many are familiar with European modernists' interest in Chinese art and poetry; however, less well known is that Russian literature and art at the turn of the 20th century also flourished in a sustained dialogue with China. In Fin de siècle Russia and Chinese Aesthetics, Jinyi Chu reconsiders the place of Russia in the genealogy of global modernism by exploring the enduring impact of China on pre-revolutionary Russian culture. This book argues that fin de siècle Russian ideas about increasing global cultural and socioeconomic interconnectedness emerged from their unsettling encounters with China. Drawing on literary texts, paintings, advertisements official documents and archival work in Russia China France and the United States Chu reconstructs surprising stories about cultural interactions From Innokenty Annensky's encounter with a Tibetan monk in Paris Aleksei Remizov's adaptations of Chinese ghost stories and Lev Tolstoy's translations of the Daoist canon to Ilya Mashkov's fauvist painting of a Chinese fairy this book presents a new cultural history of fin de siècle Russia in relation to the East Fin de siècle Russia and Chinese Aesthetics casts new light on the intricate relationships between geopolitics and transnational aesthetics It moves beyond the idea that Russian literary and artistic representations of China were simply manifestations of Russia's imperial ideology and Eurasian cultural identity Instead Chu shows that literature and art actively renegotiate and destabilize the preconceived world order at a time of intensifying geopolitical and cultural transformation when China shifted from Russia's rival in Inner Asia to a target in the competition of global imperialist powers The Western Reinvention of Chinese Literature, 1910-2010, 2022-07-04 During much of China's tumultuous 20th century May 4th and Maoist iconoclasts regarded their classical literary heritage as a burden to be dislodged in the quest for modernization This volume demonstrates how the traditions that had deeply impressed earlier generations of Western writers like Goethe and Voltaire did not lose their lustre to the contrary a fascination with these past riches sprouted with renewed vigour among Euro American poets novelists and other cultural figures after the fall of imperial China in 1911 From Petrograd to Paris and from S o Paolo to San Francisco China's premodern poetry theatre essays and fiction inspired numerous prominent writers and intellectuals The contributors survey the fruits of this engagement in multiple Western languages and nations Literary Translation, Reception, and Transfer Norbert Bachleitner, 2020-09-21 The three concepts mentioned in the title of this volume imply the contact between two or more literary phenomena they are based on similarities that are related to a form of travelling and imitation or adaptation of entire texts genres forms or contents Transfer comprises all sorts of travelling with translation as a major instrument of transferring literature across linguistic and cultural barriers Transfer aims at the process of communication starting with the source product and its cultural context and then highlighting the mediation by certain agents and institutions to end up with inclusion in the target culture Reception lays its focus on the receiving culture especially on criticism reading and interpretation Translation therefore forms a major factor in reception with the general aim of reception studies being to reveal the wide spectrum of interpretations each text offers Moreover translations are the prime instrument in the distribution of literature across linguistic and cultural borders thus they pave the way for gaining prestige in the world of literature The thirty eight papers included in this volume and dedicated to research in this area were previously read at the ICLA conference 2016 in Vienna They are ample proof that the field remains at the center of interest in Comparative Literature Chine Moderne, Ou Description Historique, Géographique Et Littéraire de Ce Vaste Empire Guillaume Pauthier, 1853 The Imaginative Interpretation of the Far East in Modern French Literature, 1800-1925 William Leonard Schwartz, 1927 La flûte de jade Franz Toussaint, 1926 Bulletin de l'Ecole française d'Extrême-Orient
