Leacutevaluation En Peacebuilding:

Measuring the Impact of Peacebuilding Interventions on Rule of Law and Security Institutions Vincenza Scherrer, 2012-05-14 Since the 1990s internationally supported peacebuilding interventions have become increasingly prominent Activities focusing on rule of law and security institutions are a key component of this agenda Despite increasing calls for more rigorous analysis of the impact of peacebuilding interventions conceptual advances have been limited There is little clarity on what is working what is not and why This SSR Paper seeks to address this gap by mapping relevant approaches and methodologies to measuring impact It examines how international actors have approached these questions in relation to support to rule of law and security institutions in complex peacebuilding environments Most significantly the paper demonstrates that measuring impact is not only feasible but necessary in order to maximise the effectiveness of major international investments in this field Approaches to Peacebuilding H. Jeong, 2002-08-11 Ho Won Jeong and a cast of experts explore the ways in which the dynamics of post conflict situations can be transformed to sustainable peace Contributors focus on designs and models of peacebuilding functions of peacekeeping capacity building through negotiations reconciliation the role of gender in social reconstruction and policy coordination among different components of peacebuilding The analysis illustrates past and current experiences of peacebuilding and suggests conceptual and policy approaches that can overcome the weaknesses of existing strategies Luc Reyhler: A Pioneer in Sustainable Peacebuilding Architecture Luc Reyhler, Arnim Langer, 2020-05-07 This book provides a unique personal perspective on the field of peace research It not only highlights Luc Reyhler s significant contributions to the theory and praxis of sustainable peacebuilding but also offers important reflections on the evolution of peace research as an independent discipline The central concept of this book and of Reyhler s academic career for that matter is sustainable peacebuilding architecture Reyhler introduced this concept in order to draw attention to the architectural principles and considerations that have to be addressed in sustainable peacebuilding processes Reyhler s work on sustainable peacebuilding architecture has been groundbreaking and has not lost any of its relevance in the twenty first century By bringing together Reyhler s seminal texts on sustainable peacebuilding architecture the current book aims to offer academics students and policymakers an essential guide to understanding studying and applying this crucial concept Provides a unique personal view of the development of peace research Lists the necessary building blocks for sustainable peacebuilding Offers tools for monitoring and evaluating interventions Discusses the scientific nature and often provocative findings of peace research Discusses ten lessons learned and the future Peace Research III Peace Research and Peacebuilding Chadwick F Alger, 2013-08-13 This is the third volume to commemorate the 90th birthday of the distinguished scholar Chadwick F Alger to honor his lifetime achievement in international relations as President of the International Studies Association 1978 1979 and as Secretary General of the International Peace Research Association 1984 1987 After a brief introduction by Chad F Alger this volume presents six of his key texts on Peace Research and Peacebuilding covering The quest for peace What are we learning The Emerging Toolchest for Peacebuilders Peace Studies as a Transdisciplinary Project Challenges for Peace Researchers and Peace Builders in the Twenty First Century Education and Coordination of a Diversity of Actors in Applying What We Are Learning The escalating peace potential of global governance There Are Peacebuilding Tasks for Everybody and What Should Be the Foundations of Peace Education Towards Better Peacebuilding Practice Anneke Galama, Paul van Tongeren, 2002 In October 2001 the European Platform for Conflict Prevention and Transformation organized in close cooperation with Cordaid the international conference Towards Better Peace Building Back cover Peacebuilding Vincent Chetail, Oliver Jutersonke, 2014-06-22 The controversies raised by the withdrawal of US troops from Afghanistan the situation in Iraq and the management of the Arab Spring uprisings have demonstrated anew that achieving peace is not merely a matter of ending wars Indeed the consequences of conflicts often extend far beyond the termination of local hostilities impeding the reconstruction of war torn societies and making the resumption of violence more likely than not Moreover in today's interdependent world such consequences may jeopardize not only the stability of directly concerned states but may also undermine regional even global peace As a result the call to build genuine just and sustainable peace conditions exemplified by the establishment in 2006 of the UN Peacebuilding Commission Fund and Support Office has never been more urgent and underscores the pressing need for a comprehensive analysis and understanding of the critical concept of peacebuilding This new four volume Routledge Major Works collection answers such a need by bringing together the best and most influential scholarship from a wide range of academic disciplines to illuminate the idea and challenges of peacebuilding Volume I addresses the concepts actors and institutions of peacebuilding Volume II meanwhile assembles key works to focus on the challenges of security welfare justice and the rule of law Volume III is devoted to democratization the state and civil society while Volume IV brings together major works on the implementation of peacebuilding in particular reconciling international standards and local dynamics With a full index together with a comprehensive introduction newly written by the learned editors which places the collected material in its historical and intellectual context Peacebuilding is an essential work of reference Moreover its interdisciplinary and international perspective is certain to secure the collection a broad readership including scholars advanced students policymakers and practitioners Conflict Assessment and Peacebuilding Planning Lisa Schirch, 2013 The fields of conflict analysis management resolution prevention and transformation continue to expand beyond NGOs into university departments religious organizations media professionals and governments In the years since 2001 governments around the world are developing conflict assessment frameworks to complement their other needs assessment and intelligence gathering processes This handbook assists planners from a variety of different sectors to design better programs to support peace and security The handbook contains 1 conflict assessment exercises 2 self assessment exercises and 3 peacebuilding planning frameworks Conflict assessment exercises help to map the factors increasing conflict and the factors supporting peace Self assessment exercises help narrow priorities and assess abilities of those planning peacebuilding Peacebuilding frameworks offer a range of program options Through its synthesis of a wide range of conceptual frameworks into a convenient and logical framework useful for practitioners such as NGOs developing projects journalists wanting to write conflict sensitive stories or government military agencies designing large scale efforts this handbook is an essential scholarly and practical tool for the study and implementation of peacebuilding efforts
