Bulletins Et Mémoires de la Société Médicale Des Hôpitaux de Paris, 1902 Ça et là Louis Veuillot, 1903 The Real Tales of Hoffmann Vincent Giroud, Michael Kaye, 2017-06-08 Of all operas in the standard repertory none has had a more complicated genesis and textual history than Offenbach's Tales of Hoffmann Based on a highly successful 1851 play inspired by the short stories by the German Romantic writer E T A Hoffmann the work occupied the last decade of Offenbach's life When he died in October 1880 the work was being rehearsed at the Opéra Comique At once cut and rearranged the work was performed from the start in versions that ignored the composer's final intentions Only a few decades ago when previously unavailable manuscripts came to light it became possible to reconstitute the score in its real form Vincent Giroud and Michael Kaye's The Real Tales of Hoffmann tells the full story for the first time in English After discussing how the work of Hoffmann became known and influential in France the book includes little known sources for the opera especially the complete Barbier and Carr play in French and English It describes the genesis of the opera The annotated libretto is published in full with the variants for the two versions of the opera with spoken dialogue or recitatives Essays explain what was done to the opera after Offenbach's death from the 1881 Opéra Comique production to more recent restoration attempts There is also a survey of Les contes d'Hoffmann in performance from the 1970s to the present and supplementary information including discography filmography and videography The Real Tales of Hoffmann is intended to appeal to anyone interested in the work specialists or non specialists Audiences musicologists and students of French opera and opéra comique will find it of particular interest as will opera houses conductors singers directors and dramaturgs involved in performances of the opera

Jacques Lacan & Co Elisabeth Roudinesco, 1990-10-29 Roudinesco provides a finely drawn map of the intellectual debates within French psychoanalysis especially under the influence of the German emigrants during the 1930s and 1940s She is a good historian in that she provides not only a narrative history but also extensive passages from Lacan's own oral history interviews with the various figures so that we have not only her commentary but some flavor of the original documentation Many of the quotes are gems Sander Gilman Bulletin of the History of Medicine

This "Self" Which Is Not One Natalie Edwards, Christopher Hogarth, 2010-03-08 The Self Which is Not One Women's Life Writing in French assembles articles on women's life writing from diverse areas of the Francophone world It is comprised of nine chapters that discuss female writers from North Africa Sub-Saharan Africa the Caribbean and Europe in addition to French writers The idea of the self is currently attracting widespread interest in academia most notably in the arts and humanities The development of postmodernism supposes a fragmented subject formed from the network of available discourses rather than a stable and coherent self Jacques Derrida for example wrote that there is no longer any such things as a full subject and Julia Kristeva now insists that the individual is a subject in process The growing importance of psychoanalytic theory particular in French studies has also impacted upon this development The basic tenet of psychoanalytic theory is that the individual is formed of a duality the conscious and unconscious parts of the self which prevent the individual from ever fully knowing her/himself and which thus insists upon a plural incomplete self Developments in the field of postcolonial studies have also made us aware of different ways of approaching the self in different parts of the world and eroded the idea of a stable conscious and complete self As scholars examine these new ways of approaching the self autobiography has been the subject of renewed interest Several academic books have appeared in recent years that study the ways in which autobiographers represent the self as incomplete evolving and elusive In particular a number of books have appeared on the subject of women's autobiography and female subjectivity such as works by Sidonie Smith Julia Watson and Nancy Miller and several volumes interrogate postcolonial women's autobiography such as texts by Françoise Lionnet Gayatri Spivak Carole Boyce Davies and Chandra Mohanty Our volume unites these strands of criticism by examining ways that female autobiographies write the self as a fragmented plural construct across the Francophone world This will be the first book length study of this important development This volume will be of interest primarily to students and scholars working in the areas of life writing French and Francophone studies postcolonial studies and gender studies The volume contributes to multiple areas that are currently garnering substantial interest in academe postcolonial studies Francophone studies gender studies and women s writing By comparing works from across the Francophone world our volume takes a global approach to the genre of autobiography and its inflections by women writers The Self That is Not One in Women s Autobiography in French therefore represents a timely intervention in several interlinking academic fields and will thus garner substantial interest
