Lorcin Owners Manual:

The Southern Shores of the Mediterranean and its Networks Patricia Lorcin, 2017-10-02 The majority of scholarly conceptions of the Mediterranean focus on the sea's northern shores with its historical epicentres of Spain France or Italy This book seeks to demonstrate the importance of economic political and cultural networks emanating from the Mediterranean's lesser studied southern shores The various chapters emphasize the activities that made connections between the southern shores sub Saharan Africa the lands along its northern shores and beyond to the United States In doing so the book avoids a Eurocentric approach and details the importance of the players and regions of the southern hinterland in the analysis of the Mediterranean space The cultural aspects of the North African countries be they music literature film commerce or political activism continue to transform the public spheres of the countries along the northern shores of the Mediterranean and beyond to the whole of the European continent In its focus on the often overlooked North African shore the work is an innovative contribution to the historiography of the Mediterranean region This book was originally published as a special issue of the Journal of North African Studies

Colonial Memory and Postcolonial Europe Andrea L. Smith, 2006-08-21 Intersects with very active areas of research in history and anthropology and links these domains of inquiry spanning Europe and North Africa in a creative and innovative fashion Douglas Holmes Binghamton University Maltese settlers in colonial Algeria had never lived in France but as French citizens were abruptly repatriated there after Algerian independence in 1962 In France today these pieds noirs are often associated with Mediterranean qualities the persisting tensions surrounding the French Algerian War and far right anti immigrant politics Through their social clubs they have forged an identity in which Malta not Algeria is the unifying ancestral homeland Andrea L Smith uses history and ethnography to argue that scholars have failed to account for the effect of colonialism on Europe itself She explores nostalgia and collective memory the settlers liminal position in the colony as subalterns and colonists and selective forgetting in which Malta replaces Algeria the true homeland which is now inaccessible fraught with guilt and contradiction The study provides insight into race ethnicity and nationalism in Europe as well as cultural context for understanding political trends in contemporary France
