Social Studies Education in East Asian Contexts Kerry J. Kennedy,2020-07-28 The book explores the state of social studies education within selected East Asian societies and provides some insights into distinctive classroom practices In an increasingly volatile and unpredictable world the education of young people who both understand the contexts in which they are growing up and see the need for engaging with them is a top priority This task falls to social studies education which carries the responsibility for inducting young people into their social world and helping them to see the role they can play within it This is particularly important in East Asia where strong economic growth long held cultural values and diverse political systems create an environment that challenges young people on multiple fronts This book with its team of regional authors shows how different societies in the region are dealing with these challenges and what can be expected from future citizens The book will appeal to policy makers researchers and teachers interested in the current state of social studies education in East Asian societies

Language Politics in Tunisia Fethi Helal,Joseph Lo Bianco,2025-02-11 This book offers both an empirical examination of language ideologies and language policies in post Arab Spring Tunisia and a detailed critical and interdisciplinary model of Language Policy and Planning LPP

The authors present a comprehensive picture of how multiple language ideologies interact and play out as language policy against a background of political turmoil in a country with a complex history of indigenous and colonial languages. They utilise critical perspectives from Sociolinguistics and Applied Linguistics and add Critical Discourse Studies and a Discourse Historical Approach to produce a model of LPP for scholars in other settings to describe and work to improve their own specific language contexts.
