The Moral Economy of the Madrasa Keiko Sakurai, Fariba Adelhah, 2011-03-07 The revival of madrasas in the 1980s coincided with the rise of political Islam and soon became associated with the clash of civilizations between Islam and the West This volume examines the rapid expansion of madrasas across Asia and the Middle East and analyses their role in society within their local national and global context Based on anthropological investigations in Afghanistan Bangladesh China Iran and Pakistan the chapters take a new approach to the issue examining the recent phenomenon of women in madrasas Hui Muslims in China relations between the Iran s Shia seminary after the 1979 Islamic revolution and Shia in Pakistan and Afghanistan and South Asian madrasas Emphasis is placed on the increased presence of women in these institutions and the reciprocal interactions between secular and religious schools in those countries Taking into account social political and demographic changes within the region the authors show how madrasas have been successful in responding to the educational demand of the people and how they have been modernized their style to cope with a changing environment A timely contribution to a subject with great international appeal this book will be of great interest to students and scholars of international politics political Islam Middle East and Asian studies and anthropology

Beyond the Madrasa Nilanjana Gupta, 2022-12-30 This book looks at madrasas and educational institutions run by Muslim communities in India focusing on the history social relevance and importance of these institutions It provides a sensitive and in depth analysis of the push and pull of tradition religiosity and modernity within these establishments The book studies several institutions in Kozhikode Surat Mumbai Hyderabad Barak Valley in Assam Ladakh Delhi and several cities in Uttar Pradesh and examines new initiatives curricula models of education and professional training being offered It contextualises educational reforms in madrasas in response to changing policies and larger socio economic realities in contemporary India It also interrogates stereotypes associated with Islam and madrasa education paying particular attention to their syllabi and desired outcomes This book also looks at the roles and positions of women in these institutions Emphasising the long and complex history of Muslim communities and madrasas the book showcases the remarkable diversity of approaches and pedagogical practices which combine deeni and duniyati education across India today This book will be of interest to students and researchers of the history of education religious education comparative education and sociology It will also be useful to people working with NGOs and policymakers in the field of educational reform and planning

Female Madrasas in Pakistan Faiza Muhammad Din, 2023-06-20 This study sets out to explain and understand the worldview of students at Female madrasas FeM in Pakistan Beginning as an indigenous informal institute for female education at home FeM has evolved to country wide formal theological seminaries that award women graduate degrees in Islamic studies Since the 1970s state intervention and social engagement have influenced not only the structure of FeMs but their locations Attendance is from all socio economic strata of society A recent development especially in urban centers is the teaching of the state curriculum to enable young students to access mainstream education Public opinion is divided about the role of FeMs in society Some believe that FeMs confine women into the domestic realm others view FeMs as a move forward into modernity as they educate the least educated sectors of society The author uses the lens of language and gender to explore why such divergent views exist about FeMs Specifically language and vocabulary has served as a powerful factor for restricting women to their traditional roles Madrasas have a profound effect on Pakistani society at large as they respond to the immediate socio political and economic needs of the community In the last two decades many books were produced about male madrasas in Pakistan However one focusing on women s madrasas exclusively was needed because currently the number of female students enrolled in madrasas is higher than the male students This unique book is rooted in the authors experience of studying at an FeM She entered a madrasa with a yearning to be closer to God to know the book revealed to the Prophet Muhammad and to learn what he said and did A constant throughout her studies was the recognition that acquiring knowledge is one of the highest acts of righteousness according to the Prophet Muhammad
