Inclusive Learning 365 Christopher R. Bugaj, Karen Janowski, Mike Marotta, Beth Poss, 2021 Educators across the world are working to design individualized instruction that empowers every student to become experts at learning Technology and instructional interventions designed to support students with disabilities often eventually become mainstream and used by the masses. These practices provide a pathway for designing inclusive equitable and accessible educational experiences that meet the needs of every individual learner. This engaging book includes daily strategies accompanied by examples of tools that can be implemented immediately to design meaningful instruction. Topics covered include role playing games for social emotional learning, building literacy through captioned video, coding to teach early literacy, text to speech for math and reading and much more. The heart of the book is the shift in mindset that occurs by exploring a different practical inclusive strategy each day and infusing these strategies into everyday practice.

Fostering Brand Community Through Social Media William F. Humphrey, Jr., Debra A. Laverie, Shannon B. Rinaldo, 2016-02-15 This book focuses on building and maintaining brand community in the emerging dynamic space of social media. A theoretical model encompassing brand characteristics, relational factors and characteristics of the brand user community is used as a structure to explain the various aspects of online brand communities. Furthermore, the authors discuss how online brand communities differ from and can be used to complement traditional face to face brand communities. Brand managers, social media managers and other members of the brand team will find this book useful for strategic decision making in both building and maintaining brand communities. In addition, this book will serve as a practical guide for working professionals enrolled in executive education degree programs as these programs continue to be developed in universities throughout the world.
