and was eventually brought to trial and himself condemned with a series of spurious allegations Put to death by burning at the stake John Huss's demise greatly increased opposition to the Catholic creed in Bohemia and beyond and began the Hussite Wars Today Huss is alongside John Wyclif attributed as a precursor to the Protestant Reformation His writings were read and published by Martin Luther who sympathized with Huss's treatment at the hands of the church Philip S Schaff narrates his biography with a studious eye this edition includes Schaff's original notes which themselves reference Medieval texts
