Examcart Experts, Eastern European Mathematics Education in the Decades of Change Alexander Karp,2020-05-04 This contributed volume is devoted to the recent history and evolution of mathematics education in Eastern Europe exploring how it was influenced by social and political changes in this part of the world Despite the broad recognition of the importance of these changes little scholarship exists that examines the ways in which they were followed by changes in the teaching of mathematics in the post socialist countries Indeed the analyzed processes are complex and vary across the states Accordingly this book touches on many factors including differences in cultures and traditions that find expression in the teaching of mathematics Specifically this volume seeks to explore what changes there were in education in general and in the position of mathematics in school education in these years and how these changes may be explained and documented what changes there were in the content of mathematics education and its assessment and how were they motivated and adopted what new textbooks appeared and what new methodological ideas were offered in them how and why mathematics teacher education and or professional development changed what was the role if any of foreign influences on mathematics education etc The book will be of interest to both researchers in mathematics education and practitioners teachers as well as a broader audience of historians and educators exploring the political aspects of education Social Studies Education in East Asian Contexts Kerry J. Kennedy,2020-07-28 The book explores the state of social studies education within selected East Asian societies and provides some insights into distinctive classroom practices In an increasingly volatile and unpredictable world the education of young people who both understand the contexts in which they are growing up and see the need for engaging with them is a top priority This task falls to social studies education which carries the responsibility for inducting young people into their social world and helping them to see the role they can play within it This is particularly important in East Asia where strong economic growth long held cultural values and diverse political systems create an environment that challenges young people on multiple fronts This book with its team of regional authors shows how different societies in the region are dealing with these challenges and what can be expected from future citizens The book will appeal to policy makers researchers and teachers interested in the current state of social studies education in East Asian societies Language Politics in Tunisia Fethi Helal,Joseph Lo Bianco,2025-02-11 This book offers both an empirical examination of language ideologies and language policies in post Arab Spring Tunisia and a detailed critical and interdisciplinary model of Language

Policy and Planning LPP The authors present a comprehensive picture of how multiple language ideologies interact and play out as language policy against a background of political turmoil in a country with a complex history of indigenous and colonial languages They utilise critical perspectives from Sociolinguistics and Applied Linguistics and add Critical Discourse Studies and a Discourse Historical Approach to produce a model of LPP for scholars in other settings to describe and work to improve their own specific language contexts The Church Times ,1904 Sri Lanka National Bibliography ,2015
