The Collector - based on the novel by John Fowles ,1989

John Fowles's Fiction and the Poetics of Postmodernism Mahmoud Salami, 1992 Salami presents for instance a critique of the self-conscious narrative of the diary form in The Collector the intertextual relations of the multiplicity of voices the problems of subjectivity the reader's position the politics of seduction ideology and history in The Magus and The French Lieutenant's Woman The book also analyzes the ways in which Fowles uses and abuses the short story genre in which enigmas remain enigmatic and the author disappears to leave the characters free to construct their own texts Salami centers for example on A Maggot which embodies the postmodernist technique of dialogical narrative the problem of narrativization of history and the explicitly political critique of both past and present in terms of social and religious dissent These political questions are also echoed in Fowles's nonfictional book The Aristos in which he strongly rejects the totalization of narratives and the materialization of society

Kidnapping the Real David Leon Higdon, 2014 John Fowles 1963 novel The Collector evolve from three sources two of which are well known his attendance at a performance of B la Bart k s opera Duke Bluebeard s Castle and his own teenage captivity fantasies The mystery of the third source can now be resolved and its identity is detailed in this essay
