Military Application Forms Sa Army 2015:

South Africa and United Nations Peacekeeping Offensive Operations Antonio Garcia, 2018-08-17 The creation of the Force Intervention Brigade FIB as the sharp tactical edge of the United Nations Stabilisation Mission in the Democratic Republic of the Congo MONUSCO tasked with the neutralising of armed groups was a watershed moment in the history of modern peace missions What was more significant was that sub Saharan national leaders were instrumental in the creation of the FIB South Africa Tanzania and Malawi but lacked the resources to deploy such a force and consequently the brigade was deployed under the banner of the UN With the legacy of an African Renaissance and its role in the conception of the FIB South Africa remains a critical player in international peace and security in sub Saharan Africa and therefore holds a key strategic role in achieving the FIBs objectives This comes at a critical time where blue helmets are increasingly exposed to complex and challenging security contexts The aim of this work is to provide a conceptual model for South African military future operations and UN offensive peacekeeping operations In this undertaking a layer of military and Clausewitzian theory is added to offensive peacekeeping operations Furthermore there are sections on operational constructs capstone and operating concepts doctrine and structural elements as well a section on mine action This book contributes towards an understanding of the nature of modern strategy through the lens of UN offensive peacekeeping operations and provides insights into operational challenges

Military Mission Formations and Hybrid Wars Thomas Vladimir Brønd, Uzi Ben-Shalom, Eyal Ben-Ari, 2020-10-25 This volume explores and develops new social scientific tools for the analysis and understanding of contemporary military missions in theatre Despite the advent of new types of armed conflict the social scientific study of militaries in action continues to focus on tools developed in the hey day of conventional wars These tools focus on such classic issues as cohesion and leadership communication and unit dynamics or discipline and motivation While these issues continue to be important most studies focus on organic units up to and including brigades By contrast this volume suggests the utility of concepts related to mission formations as opposed to units or components to better capture the ongoing processual nature of the amalgamations and combinations that military involvement in conflicts necessitates The study of these formations by the social sciences sociology social psychology anthropology political science and organization science requires the introduction of new analytical tools to the study of militaries in theatre As such this volume utilizes new approaches to social life organizational dynamics and to armed violence to understand the place of the armed forces in contemporary conflicts and the new tasks they are assigned This book will be of much interest to students of military studies sociology security studies and International Relations in general
