future Canadian Almanac and Directory, 1847 New Voyages to Carolina Larry E. Tise, Jeffrey J. Crow, 2017-09-14 New Voyages to Carolina offers a bold new approach for understanding and telling North Carolina's history. Recognizing the need for such a fresh approach and reflecting a generation of recent scholarship, eighteen distinguished authors have sculpted a broad, inclusive narrative of the state's evolution over more than four centuries. The volume provides new lenses and provocative possibilities for reimagining the state's past. Transcending traditional markers of wars and elections, the contributors map out a new chronology encompassing geological realities, the unappreciated presence of Indians, blacks, and women, religious and cultural influences, and abiding preferences for industrial development within the limits of progressive politics. While challenging traditional story lines, the authors frame a candid tale of the state's development. Contributors: Dorothea V. Ames, East Carolina University; Karl E. Campbell, Appalachian State University; James C. Cobb, University of Georgia; Peter A. Coclanis, University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill; Stephen Feeley, McDaniel College; Jerry Gershenhorn, North Carolina Central University; Glenda Elizabeth Gilmore, Yale University; Patrick Huber, Missouri University of Science and Technology; Charles F. Irons, Elon University; David Moore, Warren Wilson College; Michael Leroy Oberg, State University of New York College at Geneseo; Stanley R. Riggs, East Carolina University; Richard D. Starnes, Western Carolina University; Carole Watterson Troxler, Elon University; Bradford J. Wood, Eastern Kentucky University; Karin Zipf, East Carolina University.

Muslim Women in Contemporary North America Meena Sharify-Funk, 2022-12-06 Muslim Women in Contemporary North America is a provocative study of how strongly held and divergent opinions, values, and beliefs, as well as misconceptions, overgeneralizations, and political agendas pertaining to Muslim women in the region enter the public frame of reference. Interrogating contested topics in a series of case studies from both Canada and the United States, this book probes below the surface in pursuit of deeper understanding and more productive dialogue. Chapters analyze controversies over clash literature, dissident reformists, female religious leadership, veils, and the nature of emancipation in a compelling examination of the ways in which Muslim American and Canadian identities and values are being defined, differentiated, and projected. By pinpointing both sources of dissonance and unexpected patterns of resonance among complex, composite, and at times overlapping identity constellations, this book uncovers the impact of controversies on broader cultural negotiations in the United States and Canada. Transforming controversy and cliché into genuine conversation, Muslim Women in Contemporary North America is an invaluable resource for scholars and students in the fields of Islamic and Muslim Studies, Gender Studies, International Relations, Political Science, and Sociology. Annual Report of the Board of Public Education of the First School District of Pennsylvania, Comprising the City of Philadelphia First School District of Pennsylvania

(Philadelphia, Pa.) Board of Public Education, 1901 Constitutional & Administrative Law Hilaire Barnett, 2017-06-26 Hilaire Barnett's Constitutional and Administrative Law has provided generations of students with reliable, accessible, and comprehensive coverage of the Public Law syllabus. Mapped to the common course outline, it equips students with an understanding of the constitution's past, present and future by analysing and illustrating the political and socio-historical contexts which have shaped the major legal rules and principles of public law as well as on-going constitutional reform. The 12th edition will address key recent developments including the referendum result on the UK's membership of the EU and its ongoing impact on constitutional and administrative law. The continuing process of devolution to the nations, Terrorism and national security. Future developments particularly in relation to Brexit will be discussed in regular updates to the companion website.

Policing Black Lives, Revised and Expanded Edition Robyn Maynard, 2025-10-15T00:00:00Z. The bestselling first edition of Policing Black Lives became a mainstay of bookshelves and classrooms across North America and Europe as the first comprehensive account of the state-sanctioned surveillance, criminalization and punishment of Black lives in Canada. This revised and expanded edition updates the original text in the wake of global Black uprisings in 2020 and offers new insights on how to build liveable futures without policing. Delving behind Canada's veneer of multiculturalism and tolerance, award-winning scholar and activist Robyn Maynard traces the afterlives of slavery across multiple institutions. Maynard sheds light on the state's role in perpetuating colonial dispossession, racial profiling, police killings, incarceration, immigration detention, deportation, exploitative migrant labour practices, disproportionate child removal and the school-to-prison pipeline, as well as the ubiquity of Black resistance. The first new chapter meticulously documents how half a century of police reforms have served to undermine Black freedom struggles while expanding the scope and scale of policing in Canadian society. In the second, Maynard advances a compelling vision for making policing obsolete and building new forms of safety.
