Michigan State Football Steve Grinczel, 2004-01-06 Michigan State University's football history is overflowing with famous interesting and colorful figures. From Gideon Charlie Smith who in 1913 became one of the nation's first black collegiate players to George Webster the Greatest Spartan of All Time to Morton Andersen who still holds the Big Ten record for longest field goal, they are all Spartans. Earl Morrall, Bubba Smith, Lorenzo White, the list goes on. Added to this list of tremendous players are legendary coaches like the Biggie Munn and Duffy Dougherty. And who could forget the famous 10-10 tie with Notre Dame in 1966 or the Rose Bowl victory over Southern Cal in 1987. Spartan tradition is more than the coaches and players on the field, however, and Michigan State Football: They Are Spartans offers many rare images and long forgotten anecdotes about how the program became a player on the national stage. The early days as a farm college team, the development into a football power, as an independent, the successful struggle to join the Big Ten conference, and of course the historic rivalry with a certain team from Ann Arbor are all recounted in the pages of this book. Blue Ribbon Football Yearbook Chris Dortch, 2005

Where Football Is King Christopher J. Walsh, 2006-07-18 Arguably the best football conference in America, the Southeastern Conference (SEC) contains some of the most storied programs in the history of college football. In Where Football Is King, Christopher Walsh provides a team-by-team history of the SEC and describes the classic games, players, and coaches in the conference's seventy-three year history. The genesis of the SEC really begins with the introduction of football to the University of Georgia in 1891 by a chemistry professor, Charles Herty. While Georgia's first game was against Mercer University that fall, the South's oldest rivalry was born when Georgia took on Auburn on February 20, 1892, at Atlanta's Piedmont Park. From there, Walsh recounts the sport took off like wildfire, and the SEC was able to formally organize some four decades later. Originally a thirteen-team conference through attrition and addition, the SEC eventually became comprised of Georgia, Auburn, Vanderbilt, Florida, Alabama, Mississippi, LSU, Kentucky, Tennessee, Mississippi State, South Carolina, and Auburn. From his unique vantage point as beat writer for Alabama football for the Tuscaloosa News, Walsh also gives insight into the culture and traditions of football in the South, where it is said and probably widely believed the game is greater than religion. Legendary figures and legendary games pass through the pages
