Problem Solving, Decision Making, and Professional Judgment Paul Brest, Linda Hamilton Krieger, 2010-05-26 In Problem Solving, Decision Making, and Professional Judgment, Paul Brest and Linda Hamilton Krieger have written a systematic guide to creative problem solving that prepares students to exercise effective judgment and decision-making skills in the complex social environments in which they will work. The book represents a major milestone in the education of lawyers and policymakers. Developed by two leaders in the field, this first book of its type includes material drawn from statistics, decision science, social and cognitive psychology, the judgment and decision-making (JDM) literature, and behavioral economics. It combines quantitative approaches to empirical analysis and decision-making statistics and decision science with the psychological literature illustrating the systematic errors of the intuitive decision maker. The book can stand alone as a text or serve as a supplement to a core law or public policy curriculum.

Problem Solving, Decision Making, and Professional Judgment: A Guide for Lawyers and Policymakers prepares students and professionals to be creative problem solvers, wise counselors, and effective decision makers. The authors' ultimate goals are to help readers get it right in their roles as professionals and citizens and to arm them against common sources of judgment error.

Transmissions and Translations in Medieval Literary and Material Culture, 2021-12-20 Bringing together the work of scholars from disparate fields of enquiry, this volume provides a timely and stimulating exploration of the themes of transmission and translation, charting developments, adaptations, and exchanges of textual, visual, material, and conceptual that reverberated across the medieval world within wide-ranging temporal and geographical contexts. Such transactions generated a multiplicity of fusions expressed in diverse and often startling ways: architecturally, textually, and through peoples' lived experiences that informed attitudes of selfhood and otherness, senses of belonging and ownership, and concepts of regionality that have been further embraced in modern and contemporary arenas of political and cultural discourse. Contributors are Tarren Andrews, Edel Bhreathnach, Cher Casey, Katherine Cross, Amanda Doviak, Elisa Foster, Matthias Friedrich, Jane Hawkes, Megan Henvey, Aideen Ireland, Alison Killilea, Ross McIntire, Lesley
