Confessions of a Scary Mommy Jill Smokler, 2012-04-03

Sometimes I just let my children fall asleep in front of the TV In a culture that idealizes motherhood it's scary to confess that in your house being a mother is beautiful and dirty and joyful and frustrating all at once Admitting that it's not easy doesn't make you a bad mom at least it shouldn't If I can't survive my daughter as a toddler how the hell am I going to get through the teenage years When Jill Smokler was first home with her small children she thought her blog would be something to keep friends and family updated To her surprise she hit a chord in the hearts of mothers everywhere I end up doing my son's homework It's wrong but so much easier Total strangers were contributing their views on that strange reality called motherhood As other women shared their stories Jill realized she wasn't alone in her feelings of exhaustion and imperfection My eighteen month old still can't say Mommy but used the word shit in perfect context But she sensed her readers were still holding back so decided to start an anonymous confessional a place where real moms could leave their most honest thoughts without fearing condemnation I pretend to be happy but I cry every night in the shower The reactions were amazing some sad some pee in your pants funny some brutally honest But they were real not a commercial glamorization I clock out of motherhood at 8 P M and hide in the basement with my laptop and a beer If you're already a fan lock the bathroom door on your whining kids run a bubble bath and settle in If you've not encountered Scary Mommy before break out a glass of champagne as well because you'll be toasting your initiation into a select club I know why some animals eat their young In chapters that cover husbands The Biggest Baby of Them All to homework Didn't I Already Graduate Confessions of a Scary

Mommy combines all new essays from Jill with the best of the anonymous confessions Sometimes I wish my son was still little then I hear kids screaming at the store As Jill says We like to paint motherhood as picture perfect A newborn peacefully resting on his mother s chest A toddler taking tentative first steps into his mother s loving arms A mother fluffing her daughter s prom dress These moments are indeed miraculous and joyful they can also be few and far between Of course you adore your kids Of course you would lay down your life for them But be honest now Have you ever wondered what possessed you to sign up for the job of motherhood STOP DO NOT OPEN THIS BOOK UNTIL YOU RECITE THESE VOWS I shall remember that no mother is perfect and my children will thrive because and sometimes even in spite of me I shall not preach to a fellow mother who has not asked my opinion It s none of my damn business I shall maintain a sense of humor about all things motherhood

Confessions of a Crummy Mummy - The Baby Years Natalie Brown,2021-11-16 Unashamedly oversharing the truth about the first year Confessions of a Crummy Mummy The Baby Years by parenting blogger and accidental mum of four Natalie Brown confessionsofacrummymummy is the literary equivalent of the tea and toast you re handed after giving birth warm reassuring and you can t help but want more An antidote to the traditional parenting manual the telling it how it is parenting memoir lifts the lid on a subject the hugely successful genre of telling it how it is parenting memoirs has yet to touch on giving birth during a global pandemic And let s just say giving birth during a global pandemic was not in the birth plan An easy to digest and quick paced list style format offers a collection of witty and brutally honest confessions time poor mums can dip in and out of and back into again Starting with the birth and what really happens to your lady bits after pushing a human being out of your foo foo chapters are split into confessions on subjects including breastfeeding weaning homeschooling and washing and what happens when you find yourself doing it all in the middle of a global pandemic The light hearted and entertaining confessions are peppered with heartfelt thoughts frustrations and home truths about the first year that every mum will relate to making the book a perfect gift and must read for all new and not so new mamas feeling like they re doing too many things and none of them well
