Literary Translation, Language and Thought Rosy Singh, Mercy V. Guite, 2025-11-28 This book looks at the intersection where languages meet where literary studies connect with other domains of knowledge such as translation modern linguistics philosophy of language the teaching of languages and cultural studies Authors speak of their experiences in literary translation and discuss texts translated from and into languages such as ancient Hebrew and Greek German English French Polish Punjabi Paite Urdu and Hindi They address guestions such asthe following Is it enough for a translator to be fluent in two languages Should translators not also know how to read a literary text with its stylistic cultural formal and existential nuances How far can translators go with their creative ideas and where do they draw a line Do the hierarchies of languages impact translations The volume will be indispensable for scholars and researchers of translation studies literature philosophy German Studies Francophone Studies and English Studies It will also appeal to general readers interested in literary translation Handbook on Postconservative Theological Interpretation Ronald T. Michener, Mark A. Lamport, 2024-10-24 Postconservative theology may be said to parallel with postliberal theology at its best Orthodox biblical but open to new insights about how to interpret Scripture But the new insights must be faithful as well as fresh Postconservative theology is not the same as progressive theology which tends to lean toward indeterminant faith expressions whereas postconservative allows for particular faith commitments and expressions but understands that the constructive task of theology is never finished Authors emphasize various interpretive theological lenses used for doing theology among various postconservative theologians rather than emphasizing the philosophical background to hermeneutical theory present in other works such as past influential thinkers including Gadamer Grondin Ricoeur Heidegger etc This resource could also function as a companion to Evangelical Theological Method Five Views 2018 This emphasis of the chapters will not be on the nuts and bolts of how to interpret but rather on the theological impulses that govern various lenses Bible cultural context etc for doing theology and the way Scripture functions with respect to the practice of Mentoring in Higher Education Clare Woolhouse, Laura Nicholson, 2020-09-07 This book explores the interpretation role and importance of mentoring as a form of collaborative learning in higher education While mentoring has become increasingly popular the definition itself can remain broad and potentially nebulous and could be applied to a variety of endeavours The chapters engage with case studies and empirical research from across the globe that respond to concerns raised within a range of cross disciplinary fields providing important clarity as to the role of mentoring within higher education Offering clarity and precision as well as robust qualitative data this book will be of interest and value to scholars of mentoring in higher education as well as those engaged in mentoring themselves Anarchism in the Dramas of Ernst Toller Michael Ossar,1980-01-01 This study shows how politics and art intermingled in the life and works of one of the most renowned playwrights of German Expressionism a man who was in many senses paradigmatic of the non communist Left in the Weimar Republic Toller sought to preserve the sanctity of the individual against collectivist assaults from the Right and from the Left but at the same time to meet the needs of a complex society Ossar demonstrates that the playwright arrived at solutions that were anarchist in nature deriving from a long European tradition This is the first in depth book length study of Toller and his plays published in English The Existential Philosophy of Etty Hillesum Meins G. S.

Coetsier,2014-01-09 In The Existential Philosophy of Etty Hillesum Meins G S Coetsier breaks new ground by demonstrating the Jewish existential nature of Etty Hillesum's spiritual and cultural life in light of the writings of Martin Buber Emmanuel Levinas and Dietrich Bonhoeffer Hillesum's diaries and letters written between 1941 and 1943 illustrate her struggle to come to terms with her personal life in the context of the Second World War and the Shoah By finding God under the rubble of the horrors she rediscovers the divine presence between humankind while taking up responsibility for the Other as a way to embrace justice and compassion In a fascinating accessible and thorough study Coetsier dispels much of the confusion that assails readers when they are exposed to the bewildering range of Christian and Jewish influences and other cultural interpretations of her writings The result is a convincing and profound picture of Etty Hillesum's path to spiritual freedom
