Maryknoll Essay Contest 2013:

The Contest for Time and Space in the Roman Imperial Cults and 1 Peter Wei Hsien Wan, 2019-10-17 Wei Hsien Wan builds on the work of David Horrell and Travis Williams for his argument that the letter of 1 Peter engages in a subtle calculated form of resistance to Rome that has often gone undetected Whilst previous discussion of the topic has remained largely focused on the letter's stance toward specific Roman institutions such as the emperor household structures and the imperial cults Wan takes the conversation beyond these confines and examines 1 Peter's critique of the Roman Empire in terms of its ideology or worldview Using the work of James Scott to conceptualize ideological resistance against domination Wan considers how the imperial cults of Anatolia and 1 Peter offered distinct constructions of time and space that is how they envisioned reality differently Insofar as these differences led to divergent ways of conceiving the social order they acquired political power and generated potential for conflict Wan thus argues that 1 Peter confronts Rome on a cosmic scale with its alternative construal of time and space and examines the evidence that the Petrine author consciously if cautiously interrogated the imperial imagination at its most foundational levels and set forth in its place a theocentric Christological understanding of the world

Fragile World William T. Cavanaugh, 2018-05-22 In Fragile World Ecology and the Church scholars and activists from Christian communities as far flung as Honduras the Philippines Colombia and Kenya present a global angle on the global ecological crisis in both its material and spiritual senses and offer Catholic resources for responding to it This volume explores the deep interconnections for better and for worse between the global North and the global South and analyzes the relationship among the physical environment human society culture theology and economics the integral ecology described by Pope Francis in Laudato Si Integral ecology demands that we think deeply about humans and the physical environment but also about the God who both created the world and sustains it in being At its root the ecological crisis is a theological crisis not only in the way that humans regard creation and their place in it but in the way that humans think about God For Pope Francis in Laudato Si the root of the crisis is that we humans have tried to put ourselves in God's place According to Pope Francis therefore A fragile world entrusted by God to human care challenges us to devise intelligent ways of directing developing and limiting our power

Earthing the Cosmic Christ of Ephesians—The Universe, Trinity, and Zhiyi's Threefold Truth, Volume 4 John P. Keenan, 2024-02-26 In a Tiantai theology conventional truth is conventionally arisen which means that such truth is never set once and for all but is to be cherished and rethought in new circumstances whether interreligious or scientific but always in critical consonance with its ancient embodiments Contexts shift frameworks but life in Christ is translatable across cultures Christian faith and theology discourage the assumption that the point of it can be clearly pinned down God's appearance to Elijah out of the whirlwind is an eternal reminder of the paltriness of all human perspectives Symbolic worlds of faith and wisdom are not themselves finished products Because it has a past and a future the cosmos itself is unfinished Christian creeds ought not be defended as last word ideological positions and bastions against relativity but instead recognized in their cultural contexts and affirmed as grammars of communal and personal assent

Through the Flames Yakubu T. Jakada, 2024-01-19 The persecution of Christians is on the increase worldwide In Nigeria persecution has had an immense impact on the religious economic and social life of Nigerians especially in northern Nigeria Many Christians are concerned about how to properly respond to such oppression This book meticulously examines contemporary responses to persecution alongside biblical and historical experience using the theoretical framework of Fight Flight and Fortitude The writer is convinced that if Christians respond to persecution properly the gospel witness will be strengthened and bridges for peaceful interrelationship will be built in communities experiencing religious and cultural diversity

Architectures of Grace in Pastoral Care Douglas B.

Olds,2023-05-23 An updating of virtue ethics for modern pastors and the souls they care for this book proposes innovations for the craft of ministry in the theology of grace how virtues radiate to tame strife and other destructive behaviors It presents a comprehensive alternative to the top down proclamations of biblical counseling approaches that try to impart from an eclectic biblicist lens cognitive authorities for consequential change Instead Christ s bottom up practice of virtues heals and fulfills by focusing on neighbor first and subordinating the ego s strategic considerations more graciously spreading God s will in ministry through participatory and experiential knowledge Virtuous pastoral ministries integrate the common grace of humanist learning to address the range of the care seeker s contemporary context her upbringing struggles and affiliations This book presents more the how than the what of pastoral theology more how the dance of mutuality and chivalry enters the spiritual flow of healing metaphysical grace than the what of right belief Even so pastoral care from the virtue ethical approach inevitably reconsiders vending machine theologies destructive doctrinal boundaries and context lite biblicisms This presentation introduces how virtue ethics apply to ministry the household individual trauma and addictions and the contemporary political and cultural arena Living Postcolonial Anglicanism Ian T.
