Letters From Cupid:

Letters to Cupid Miranda MacLeod, 2018-06-26 An American celebrity chef and an Italian chocolate maker cook up a magical recipe for true love In a tiny village in the hills of Tuscany is a statue of Cupid with the power to grant the deepest desires of the heart to all who ask The village is home to single mother Valentina and her struggling chocolate shop All she ever wanted was to fit in determined to provide a quiet normal life for herself and her daughter She works hard to keep it together asking for nothing especially not Cupid's help Not when that would mean admitting to herself and everyone else that her deepest desire is to find the love of a woman American celebrity chef Andie should be having the time of her culinary life while on a PR blitz in Tuscany Instead a tabloid scandal that threatens to destroy her career has her hiding in a remote hillside village With nothing to do but worry and wait she spends her time avoiding shame and infamy by flirting with a local chocolate maker who's as irresistible as the sweets she sells She's shocked by the discovery that her heart longs for much more than a temporary distraction but even if she can convince the reluctant Valentina to give her a chance how can she balance a relationship in Italy with a career in the States When it comes to realizing the deepest desires of their hearts it just might take an act of divine intervention for these two women to find their future together The Letter of Cupid Thomas Hockle, 1903 Cupid's Cyclopedia, 1910 Lyme Letters, 1660-1760 Lady Newton, 1925 Richard Legh of Lyme 1634 1687 married Elizabeth Chicheley daughter of Thomas Chicheley and Sarah Russell 1 January 1661 They had thirteen children They lived at Lyme Hall near Disley Cheshire home of the Legh family for 600 years Richard served in Parliament Includes letters written by family members Catalogue of Title-entries of Books and Other Articles Entered in the Office of the Librarian of Congress, at Washington, Under the Copyright Law ...
