British Muslims in the Neoliberal Empire William Barylo,2025-02-25 More than twenty years after 9 11 what has changed for Muslims in the West From the occupation of lands the world has entered a new era the occupation of minds State strategies have evolved to offer a dangerous gamble to people from post colonial diasporas remain at the margins or silently blend in for the sake of an illusory liberation From power hungry Muslim politicians in elite private clubs to politically apathetic social media influencers multi million pound neo colonial humanitarian charities Muslim far right sympathisers and Muslim white supremacists this new form of colonialism Metacolonialism has effectively turned the oppressed into the new oppressors Under the promise of financial stability and representation it has effectively put God for sale at the cost of people s culture ethics identity and faith However in the wake of the new Roaring Twenties marked by social justice movements Muslims in Britain have crafted creative responses inspired by their faith in order to resist heal and flourish despite minimal resources and support Informal and independent from institutions they have established pioneering alternatives in the fields of mental health community organizing the protection of the environment heritage the arts and more Since leadership divides they have undertaken a duty of stewardship considering the world and humanity as one ecosystem that one needs to care for future generations This work is both a diagnosis and a toolbox looking at the initiatives that reshape public debates and offer working ideas for building a fair and just society
