Doctrine an Italian state security policy which has been portrayed in literature as an under the counter agreement made between Italy and Palestinian movement during the Cold War The Moro Doctrine or Lodo Moro as it is known in Italy aimed to protect the peninsula from Palestinian attacks by allowing terrorists to use Italian territory as a base for weapons and guerrilla fighters Responsibility for the Lodo was instrumentally placed on Aldo Moro the five time Prime Minister of Italy after his death and since then his name has become indelibly linked with the shame of having negotiated with Palestinian terrorists Thanks to records collected from over twenty archives in Italy the USA France Germany Britain and Russia concrete evidence shows that the significance of this agreement needs to be rethought The author argues that the decision to adopt the Lodo was not solely made by Moro but also involved key figures of the Christian Democrat and Socialist parties various magistrates and even the President of the Republic It illustrates how terrorism was used as an effective tool in international diplomacy to influence foreign and domestic policies Offering a re examination of Italian counter terrorist policy
