Groth, Katherine Spangler, 2004 Written from a constructivist viewpoint this popular book for future teachers of children from preschool through the primary grades focuses on how young children construct literacy and how teachers can support and guide that activity through developmentally appropriate teaching practices Advocates giving children a choice of the reading material from which they will learn and caution against grouping children solely by literacy ability Examines current research into emergent and holistic literacy and tie its findings to instructional practices that teach such skills as phonemic awareness phonics and spelling within the context of meaningful reading and writing tasks Increased coverage of assessment emphasizes performance based alternatives to standardized testing during early childhood and examines current recommendations in terms of developmentally appropriate practice Provides a strong explanation of shared and interactive writing Discusses literacy development in infants and toddlers For future or current teachers interested in literacy or reading methods in early childhood The Complete Learning Spaces Book for Infants and Toddlers

Rebecca T. Isbell, Christy Isbell, 2003 The Complete Learning Spaces Book for Infants and Toddlers is designed to help busy teachers meet the challenge of creating an effective learning environment for very young children. It includes ideas for planning, using, and evaluating learning spaces that will captivate infants and toddlers and encourage the developmental process. Information for each learning space is complete with thorough illustrations, letters to parents, literacy connections, and vocabulary lists. Learning objectives and assessments help determine the impact of each learning space on the children's development. Journal of Nursery Education, 1995. Teaching Reading in Elementary Classrooms Rebecca Barr, Barbara Johnson, 1991. Imagine that David M. Considine, Gail E. Haley, Lyn Ellen Lacy, 1994. This work offers strategies and activities that show students how to locate, identify, and interpret iconic information contained in illustrations, particularly in picture books where the illustrations often contain ideas not addressed in the text. The Napping House, 1996. In this cumulative tale, a wakeful flea atop a number of sleeping creatures causes quite a commotion with just one bite.
