Expectation Jean-Luc Nancy, 2021-05-20 A courtship between philosophy and literature that has never been presented with such wit grace and finesse from one of France's leading thinkers Jean Michel Rabat from the Introduction Expectation is a major volume of Jean Luc Nancy's writings on literature written across three decades but for the most part previously unavailable in English More substantial than literary criticism these essays collectively negotiate literature's relation to philosophy Nancy pursues such questions as literature's claims to truth the status of narrative the relation of poetry and prose and the unity of a book or of a text and he addresses a number of major European writers including Dante Sterne Rousseau Hlderlin Proust Joyce and Blanchot The final section offers a number of impressive pieces by Nancy that completely merge his concerns for philosophy and literature and philosophy as literature These include a lengthy parody of Val ry's La Jeune Parque several original poems by Nancy and a beautiful prose poetic discourse on an installation by Italian artist Claudio Parmiggiani that incorporates the Faust theme Opening with a substantial Introduction by Jean Michel Rabat that elaborates Nancy's importance as a literary thinker this book constitutes the most substantial statement to date by one of today's leading philosophers on a discipline that has been central to his work across his career Among Nancy's many distinguished writings Expectation demands recognition Choice

Born into privilege but expected to use her advantages for the good of others Senator Nancy Ruth has led an uncommon unconventional life From her religious ministry to rewriting Canada's national anthem to make it gender neutral this outspoken complicated woman has put her stamp on Canada's public life Her generous feminist philanthropy allowed numerous women's organizations to flourish and her talents for friendship and for controversy meant the work was serious but never dull Like Nancy herself this book is rich in surprises and contradictions about a remarkable woman who used her privilege to support social change and the battle to better women's lives in Canada At the Limits of Presentation

Martta Heikkilä, 2008 This study explores the significance of art in Jean Luc Nancy's philosophy The main object of the work is to discuss the notion of art and its contribution to some of Nancy's central ontological ideas Art's importance is considered in its own right the main questions being whether art does have ontological significance and if so how one should describe this with respect to the theme of presentation According to the work's central argument with his thinking on art Nancy attempts to give one viewpoint to what is called the metaphysics of presence and to its deconstruction On which grounds may one say that art is not reducible to philosophy These topics are examined by highlighting the differentiation between the notions of presentation and representation with regard to the influence of Martin Heidegger and Jacques Derrida on Nancy's thought
