Le Politique Par Le Bas En Afrique Noire:

Le politique par le bas en Afrique noire Bayart Jean-François, MBEMBE Achille, Toulabor Comi, 2008-07-01 Dès le début des années 1980 les auteurs posaient le problème du politique par le bas en Afrique Ils soulignaient le rôle des petits des sans importance des en bas du bas dans l'invention de formes originales de l'Etat alors même que prévalaient au sud du Sahara des situations autoritaires Mais ils s'interdisaient aussi de postuler l'existence d'une culture populaire en reprenant leur compte les critiques formulées à l'encontre de cette notion Ils proposaient pour leur part une problématique de l'annonce du politique seule même de restituer l'historicité du politique dans sa complexité et son ambivalence Leurs analyses ont marqué le renouvellement des études africaines et ont reçu une large audience bien au-delà de ces dernières Reunies en 1992 dans un volume qui fit date mais qui était puis depuis plusieurs années elles sont aujourd'hui reprises alors que de nombreux travaux recouvrent la portée de l'approche du politique par le bas et la mettent en perspective avec les subaltern studies indiennes l'Alltagsgeschichte allemande la microstoria italienne ou l'historiographie marxiste anglaise Dans cette nouvelle édition augmentée une préface inédite montre en quoi elle demeure utile de pour comprendre le monde contemporain en dehors des facilités de pensée À condition de voir qu'elle n'a jamais prétendu être une école mais un simple état d'esprit une forme de hétérodoxie par rapport aux courants établis des sciences sociales une expression de cynisme heuristique vis-à-vis des croyances et des convenances académiques ou politiques

Youth and Sport for Development Holly Collison, 2016-06-29 Processes of development concerning reconciliation rehabilitation and peace building have become a central theme for global organizations tasked with intervening in broken and divided societies after violent conflicts What can reunite populations divided by war and violence whilst attempting to build a peaceful civil society This book considers the impact and value of sport notably football towards achieving this goal Using extensive fieldwork from Liberia Collison highlights the multiple and diverse stakeholders and actors aligning themselves with Sport for Development and Peace interventions By unpacking and conceptualising the ambiguous terminology complex social effects and the lived experience of SDP this book draw upon participant voices and the author s own lived experience within SDP to gain symbolic understandings of culture identity and the formal and informal social structures in which participants and interventions operate Collison identifies that SDP has become fashionable within development agendas but it remains an aspirational image a notion of seduction rather than a tested method of reintegration and youth development in post conflict environments Youth and Sport for Development questions the assumptions of SDP rhetoric and programs and traces the effects of football the favoured vehicle of SDP on youth in post conflict Liberia Examining three core themes post conflict development youth and community this book centralises the narratives of young football players in Liberia and will appeal to scholars across Anthropology Sociology Sports Studies Politics and Development

ID Wars in Côte d'Ivoire Richard Banégas, Armando Cutolo, 2024-08-07 Identity documents provide rights to citizenship and social inclusion They can also generate violence and conflicts This book explores C te d Ivoire s ID war as a paradigmatic case of a citizenship crisis centered on the access to national identity cards and certificates Using ethnographic and historical data it shows how the documentary struggle for citizenship has continued in the post crisis reconstruction affecting the new policies of identification and registration based upon biometrics and new technologies It describes how the latter have been overturned and reframed by the Ivorian society Focusing on the production and negotiation of legal identities the book delves into the social life of IDs and biometrics and describes the clandestine world of the margouillats the corrupt brokers of the civil registry the forms of documentary falsification aimed at taming legal and bureaucratic principles with the requirements of ordinary social life the hidden practices of state apparatuses of identification and the local machinery of biometric registration and the self made censuses and systems of identification used by minorities seeking recognition in the public space Through these ethnographic descriptions with a specific approach from below the book shows that actual reforms supposed to depoliticize and in the case of biometric technologies to de socialize identification do not erase its constitutively political dimension From a comparative perspective the case of C te d Ivoire reveals the unprecedented revenge of the documentary state on the biometric state and encourages us to rethink their dyadic opposition in a more complex triangulation of identification debt and recognition Oxford Studies in African Politics and International Relations is a series for scholars and students working on African politics and International Relations and related disciplines Volumes concentrate on contemporary developments in African political science political economy and International Relations such as electoral politics democratization decentralization the political impact of natural resources the dynamics and consequences of conflict and the nature of the continent s engagement with the East and West Comparative and mixed methods work is particularly encouraged Case studies are welcomed but should demonstrate the broader theoretical and empirical implications of the study and its wider relevance to contemporary debates The series focuses on sub Saharan Africa although proposals that explain how the region engages with North Africa and other parts of the world are of interest General Editors Nic Cheeseman Peace Medie and Ricardo Soares de Oliveira
