Le Principe De Letat:

The Continental Shelf and the Exclusive Economic Zone / Le plateau continental et la zone économique exclusive Donat Pharand, Umberto Leanza, 2022-02-22 This volume focuses on both the general aspects of two of the most typical institutions introduced by the new Law of the Sea and the specific aspects related to the geographic and economic circumstances of Italy and Canada It is divided into two parts The first part deals with the delimitation of maritime boundaries especially with respect to the continental shelf and the exclusive economic zone The problem is approached from both a theoretical and a practical point of view in particular in analyzing not only the more well known controversies in delimitation solved by international agreements or by international courts but also still unsettled disputes in which Italy and Canada are involved The second part deals with the legal regime of the continental shelf and the exclusive zone and the activities in particular exploration and exploitation carried out in them The same approach as in Part One is used in juxtaposing Italian and Canadian views on relative regulation Indeed the volume brings together the diverse legal experience of the two countries Italy and Canada resulting from the different geographic political and economic conditions found in each It is enough to think that Italy is surrounded on three sides by a closed or semiclosed sea the Mediterranean while Canada borders on the Atlantic Pacific and Arctic Oceans The volume was financed by the Italian National Research Council CNR and edited by Donat Pharand Professor Emeritus of International Law at the University of Ottawa and Umberto Leanza Full Professor of International Law at the University of Rome Tor Vergata The International Criminal Court and National Jurisdictions Mauro Politi, Federica Gioia, 2008 This latest addition to the Trento Conference Series brings together a wide range of leading scholars diplomats and representatives of international organizations to address issues at the heart of the substantive and procedural law of the Court Examining aspects of national implementation and international cooperation the book discusses a broad range of topics and provides an important contribution to ongoing debates surrounding International Criminal Law and the International Criminal Court The Nineteenth Century and After, 1917 Recueil Des Cours, Collected Courses 1930 Academie De Droit International De La Ha, 1968-12-01 African Yearbook of International Law/Annuaire Africain De Droit International Abdulqawi A. Yusuf, 2001-02-01 The African Yearbook of International Law provides an intellectual forum for the systematic analysis and scientific dissection of issues of international law as they apply to Africa as well as Africa's contribution to the progressive development of international law It contributes to the promotion acceptance of and respect for the principles of international law as well as to the encouragement of the teaching study dissemination and wider appreciations of international law in Africa A clear articulation of Africa's views on the various aspects of international law based on the present realities of the continent as well as on Africa's civilization culture philosophy and history will undoubtedly contribute to a better understanding among nations The African Yearbook of International Law plays an important role in examining the tensions underlying the State in Africa and by shedding more light on the causes of the fragility of African State institutions so as to facilitate the identification of appropriate remedies The tension and interrelationships among issues such as territorial integrity self determination ethnic diversity and nation building are constantly addressed Development human rights and democratization in Africa are also the subject of continuous attention and examination The Special Theme of this volume is Regional Economic Integration in Africa II Histoire de la Science Politique Dans Ses Rapports Avec la Morale Paul Janet,1887 International Law Notes ,1917 British and Foreign State Papers Great Britain.
