Joint Exam For Civics:

Civic Education in the Asia-Pacific Region John L. Cogan, Murray Print, 2013-12-02 This book examines the approach to civic education in six societies located on the Pacific Rim Australia Japan Hong Kong Taiwan Thailand and the US In these scrupulously designed studies the contributors investigate the recent re emergence of civic education in this region Developments such as globalization nationalism and sovereignty have profound effects on how schools make good citizens These essays reveal how definitions of citizenship are contested and revised under such influences and interrogate differences in civic education from nation to nation As societies attempt to strike a balance between obedience and critical thinking schools become the primary site of these transformations Analyzing both educational policy and its implementation these contributors offer a groundbreaking comparative study that grounds civic education historically and politically

Globalizing Civic Engagement John D Clark, 2012-03-29 Informative and useful Development and Change Until recently most civil society organizations CSOs operated at national or local levels However new global organizations and networks are increasingly emerging This book examines what CSOs can achieve and the barriers they face when they break national boundaries and sectoral moulds and work with others in global networks A series of case studies of CSO initiatives reveal how transnational action can yield impressive results in changing policies and public attitudes The diverse range of CSOs studied includes consumer groups trade unions the anti globalization protest movement the World Social Forum Jubilee 2000 and others All reveal a remarkably similar array of practical challenges from structure and leadership issues to governance dilemmas The book offers practical guidance to those engaged with CSOs and contributes to academic enquiry about civil society
