Exploring Gender and Sikh Traditions Doris R. Jakobsh,2021-09-01 This volume gathers scholars who focus on gender through a variety of disciplines and approaches to Sikh Studies The intersections of religion and gender are here explored based on an understanding that both are socially constructed Far from being static as so often presented in world religions textbooks religious traditions are constantly in flux responding to historical cultural and social contexts So too is the Sikh tradition in terms of practices ideologies rituals and notions of identity We here conclude that a Sikh tradition does not exist instead there are numerous forms thereof In this volume Sikhism is presented as a collection of Sikh traditions Gender studies in line with women s liberation masculine and feminist studies have long examined and have long deconstructed the patriarchy but also move to identify other subordinate dominant relations between individuals Indeed there are numerous forms of discrimination and power structures that simultaneously create a multiplicity of oppression Intersectionality has become the basis of an increasingly systematized production of contemporary discourses on feminism and gender analysis as is evidenced by the varied contributions in this volume

Divinizing in South Asian Traditions Diana Dimitrova,Tatiana Oranskaia,2018-06-14 The issue of divinizing in South Asian traditions has not been examined before as a process involving various methods to affect the socio cultural cognition of the community It is therefore essential to consider the context of divinizing and to analyse what groups institutions or individuals define the discourse what are the ideological positions that they represent and who or what is being divinized This book deals with the issue of divinizing in South Asian traditions It aims at studying cultural questions related to the representations and the mythologizing of the divine It also explores the human relations to the divine other It studies the interpretations of the divine in religious texts and the embodiment of the divine other in ritual practices The focus is on studying the phenomenon of divinizing in its religious cultural and ideological implications The book comprises eight chapters that explore the question of divinizing from the 2nd century CE up to present day in North and South India The chapters discuss the issue both from insider and outsider perspectives within the framework of textual study as well as ideological and anthropological analysis All articles explore various aspects of the cultural phenomenon of being in relation to the divine other of the process of interpreting and embodying the divine and of the representation of the divinizing process as revealed in the literatures and cultures of South Asia Applying theoretical models of religious and cultural studies to discuss texts written in South Asian languages and engage in critical dialogue with current scholarship this book is an indispensable study of literary religious and cultural production in South Asia It will be of interest to academics in the fields of South Asian studies Asian Studies religious and cultural studies as well as comparative religion
