Arab Dawn Bessma Momani, 2015-11-26 In the West news about the Middle East is dominated by an endless stream of reports and commentary about civil war sectarian violence religious extremism and economic stagnation But do they tell the full story For instance who knew that university enrolment in the war torn Palestinian territories exceeds that of Hong Kong or that more than a third of Lebanese entrepreneurs are women Change is on its way in the Middle East argues Bessma Momani and its cause is demographic Today one in five Arabs is between the ages of fifteen and twenty four Young optimistic and increasingly cosmopolitan their generation will shape the region's future Drawing on interviews surveys and other research conducted with young people in fifteen countries across the Arab world Momani describes the passion for entrepreneurship reform and equality among Arab youth With insightful political analysis based on the latest statistics and first hand accounts Arab Dawn is an invigorating study of the Arab world and the transformative power of youth

Governomics Ian McAuley, Miriam Lyons, 2015-05-01 People have good reason to demand decent public education and a well funded health system to yearn for an economy that doesn't trash the environment or for a smaller gap between rich and poor Almost without exception sound economics is on their side We've grown used to public debates that pit people and the planet against an abstract distorted image of the economy but it doesn't have to be this way Governomics shows that an emaciated state is bad for business and that standing up for government means standing up for a public sector that truly serves the public Everybody knows governments are wasteful incompetent and a drag on the economy But if you're not sure that's true read this book Ross Gittins Sydney Morning Herald and The Age Governomics shows that a market economy can only work when sustained by a strong and active public sector It will inject some much needed economic sanity into conversations on the role of government in Australia John Quiggin Australian Research Council Laureate Fellow University of Queensland

Global Social Policy Kepa Artaraz, Liz Cunningham, Michael Hill, 2016-06-29 Social policy is a subject that helps develop our understanding of the meaning of human wellbeing and of the systems by which wellbeing must be promoted As a discipline social policy has traditionally been blunted by a focus on the nation state however in this age of globalisation the most pressing challenges such as climate change ageing populations and flagging economies serve as proof that even at national level social policy is now more heavily influenced by global factors than ever before In this important and authoritative text Kepa Artaraz and Michael Hill provide a richly detailed contribution to our understanding of the global forces shaping social problems today Part One discusses the different approaches to social policy and explores the process of globalisation looking particularly at its winners and losers and the implications it has for human wellbeing Part Two examines more closely the key actors in global social policy such as the market the state and international organisations and Part Three provides an opportunity to explore some specific key issues of global importance such as employment and migration demographic change and global poverty Adding considerable momentum to the movement away from a reductionist nationally focused study of the discipline Global Social Policy opens up new and stimulating discussions and provides a fresh framework for the study of human well being Using policy examples from areas around the world to provide a truly international scope it is an essential read for students studying at all levels      Despite The State: Why India Lets Its People Down And How They Cope M. Rajshekhar,2024-03 About the Book A LUCID NECESSARY ACCOUNT OF HOW DRASTICALLY THE INDIAN STATE FAILS ITS CITIZENS The story of democratic failure is usually read at the level of the nation while the primary bulwarks of democratic functioning the states get overlooked This is a tale of India s states of why they build schools but do not staff them with teachers favour a handful of companies so much that others slip into losses wage water wars with their neighbours while allowing rampant sand mining and groundwater extraction harness citizens right to vote but brutally crack down on their right to dissent Reporting from six states over thirty three months award winning investigative journalist M Rajshekhar delivers a necessary account of a deep crisis that has gone largely unexamined
