Journal Of Sociology Jstor:

Fundamentals of Social Sciences and Library Consortia Dr. R. K. Bhatt & Mr Mahesh Chand, 2021-09-11 The present book entitled Fundamentals of Social Sciences and Library is an attempt to bring to gather the fundamental concept of the umbrella term Social Science which normally consist of four basic disciplines namely Political Science Economics Sociology and History though at a later stage the multidisciplinary approaches have widened the scope of social science thereby resulted into the inclusion of several disciplines which in one context or the other are directly related to the study of human beings The present effort intends to study the most significant and important area of study in respect of a social institution known as The Library Thus the present work involves selected senior library professionals who not only have adequate background and knowledge of social science disciplines along with sound knowledge of the organization and management of the library The book is divided into six chapters namely i Social Science An Overview ii Political Science iii Economics iv Sociology v History vi Consortia and Social Sciences The book will be useful to the students pursuing the studies in the field of library and information science teachers involved in teaching the course which involves the teaching of multidisciplinary content especially the social science vis vis libraries as well as by all those who wants to study and do research the role of libraries and their contribution in the growth and development of social science disciplines Focus On: 100 Most Popular American Agnostics Wikipedia contributors, The American Journal of Sociology Albion W. Small, Ellsworth Faris, Ernest Watson Burgess, Herbert Blumer, 1913 Established in 1895 as the first U S scholarly journal in its field AJS remains a leading voice for analysis and research in the social sciences presenting work on the theory methods practice and history of sociology AJS also seeks the application of perspectives from other social sciences and publishes papers by psychologists anthropologists statisticians economists educators historians and political scientists Employee Inter- and Intra-Firm Mobility Daniel Tzabbar, Bruno Cirillo, 2020-07-15 This volume identifies new theoretical and empirical directions to the study of employee mobility covering broad sets of theoretical frameworks which are embedded in strategic organizational sociological or entrepreneurial theories and of empirical approaches which cover industry firm team and individual levels of analysis Social Movements and Collective Action Bob Edwards, Marieke Van Willigen, Tisha Yelverton, 2003 Economics in the Shadows of Darwin and Marx Geoffrey Martin Hodgson, 2006 Darwin and Marx stand out as the supreme theorists of structural change in complex living systems This collection of essays establishes the importance of Darwinism for economics and other social sciences and compares the Darwinian legacy with that of Marx It adopts a Darwinian evolutionary approach to the analysis of institutions and routines Dismantling Constructs of Whiteness in Higher Education Teresa Y. Neely, Margie Montañez, 2022-09-30 This book offers counternarratives from People of Color POC engaged in varied departments faculties and institutions in higher education to interrogate and challenge the construct of whiteness as an ideological form reproduced across campuses throughout the United States Documenting individuals lived experiences the text uses narratives personal stories and autoethnographic approaches to explore how social and racial injustices manifest themselves at both a macro and micro level through structures and ideologies of whiteness as well as personal and group interactions This book divided into four valuable parts offers reconceptualizations of racial diversity in higher education and further explores identity politics within the academy to ultimately posit that a varied approach is necessary to combat the equally varied ideological forms of whiteness This text will benefit scholars academics and students in the fields of higher education race and ethnicity studies and academic librarianship more broadly Those involved with the multicultural education education policy and politics and equality and human rights in general will also benefit from this volume
