aux résonances universelles o Yasmina Khadra explore les racines du mal The Swallows of Kabul Yasmina Khadra, 2007-12-18 Set in Afghanistan's capital city of Kabul this extraordinary novel puts a human face on the suffering inflicted by the Taliban San Francisco Chronicle taking readers into the seemingly divergent lives of two couples and depicting with compassion and exquisite details the mentality of Islamic fundamentalists and the complexities of the Muslim world Mohsen comes from a family of wealthy shopkeepers whom the Taliban has destroyed Zunaira his wife exceedingly beautiful was once a brilliant teacher and is now no longer allowed to leave her home without an escort or covering her face Intersecting their world is Atiq a prison keeper a man who has sincerely adopted the Taliban ideology and struggles to keep his faith and his wife Musarrat who once rescued Atiq and is now dying of sickness and despair Desperate exhausted Mohsen wanders through Kabul when he is surrounded by a crowd about to stone an adulterous woman Numbed by the hysterical atmosphere and drawn into their rage he too throws stones at the face of the condemned woman buried up to her waist With this gesture the lives of all four protagonists move toward their destinies Yasmina Khadra brings readers into the hot dusty streets of Kabul and offers them an unflinching but compassionate insight into a society that violence and hypocrisy have brought to the edge of despair The Routledge Companion to Literature and Religion Mark Knight, 2016-04-28 This unique and comprehensive volume looks at the study of literature and religion from a contemporary critical perspective Including discussion of global literature and world religions this Companion looks at Key moments in the story of religion and literary studies from Matthew Arnold through to the impact of 9 11 A variety of theoretical approaches to the study of religion and literature Different ways that religion and literature are connected from overtly religious writing to subtle religious readings Analysis of key sacred texts and the way they have been studied re written and questioned by literature Political implications of work on religion and literature Thoroughly introduced and contextualised this volume is an engaging introduction to this huge and complex field Afghanistan C. Heather Bleaney, María Ángeles Gallego, 2006 Presents a thematically indexed bibliography devoted to Afghanistan Following the pattern established by one of its major data sources viz the acclaimed Index Islamicus both journal articles and book publications are included and indexed Symbolism 14 Rüdiger Ahrens, Klaus Stierstorfer, 2014-12-12 Symbolic representation is a crucial subject for and a potent heuristic instrument of diaspora studies This special focus inquires into the forms and functions of symbols of diaspora both in aesthetic practice and in critical discourse analyzing and theorizing symbols from Shakespeare to Bollywood as well as in critical writings of theorists of diaspora What kinds of symbols and symbolic practices contributors ask are germane to the representation both emic and etic of diasporics and diasporas How are specific symbols and symbolic practices analyzed across the academic fields contributing to diaspora studies Which symbols and symbolic practices inform the academic study of diasporas sometimes unconsciously or without being remarked on To study these phenomena is to engage in a dialogue that aims at refining the theoretical and methodological vocabulary and practice of truly transdisciplinary diaspora studies while attending to the imperative of specificity that inheres in this emerging field The volume collects a range of analyses from social anthropology history and ethnography to literary and film studies all combining readings of individual symbolic practices with meta theoretical reflections Feminist Practices Lori A. Brown, 2016-04-15 Women continue to be extremely under represented in the architectural profession Despite equal numbers of male and female students entering architectural studies there is at least 17 25% attrition of female students and not all remaining become practicing architects In both the academic and the professional fields of architecture positions of power and authority are almost entirely male and as such the profession is defined by a heterosexual Eurasian male perspective This book argues that it is vital for all architectural students and practitioners to be exposed to a diversity of contemporary architectural practices as this might provide a first step into broadening awareness and transforming architectural engagement It considers the relationships between feminist methodologies and the various approaches toward design and their impact upon our understanding and relationship to the built environment In doing so this collection challenges two conventional ideas firstly the definition of architecture and secondly what constitutes a feminist practice This collection of up and coming female architects and designers use a wide range of local and global examples of their work to question different aspects of these two conventional ideas While focusing on feminist perspectives the book offers insights into many different issues concerns and interpretations of architecture proposing through these types of engagement architecture can become more culturally politically and environmentally relevant This next generation of architects claim feminism as their own and through doing so help define what feminism means and how it is evolving in the 21st century Animation in Europe Rolf Giesen, 2022-08-24 There is a lot one could say about animation in Europe but above all there is no consistent European animation It is as disparate as the various countries involved Audiences will certainly recognize American or Japanese animation but in Europe it can range from Czech Polish and Hungarian to Greek Italian Spanish Portuguese French and British Animation in Europe provides a comprehensive review of the history and current situation of animation in over 20 European countries It features numerous interviews with artists and producers including rare documents and firsthand accounts that illustrate the rich history of animation in Europe Additional features include An extensive chronology with key events in European animation A Who's Who of producers directors writers and animators working in Europe An examination of the origin of European animation and its influence Animation in Europe is the first book devoted entirely to this topic and therefore will be of value for animation buffs as well as practitioners and researchers Afghanistan Heather Bleaney, 2006-02-01 This up to date comprehensive thematically indexed bibliography devoted to Afghanistan now and yesterday will help readers to efficiently find their way in the massive secondary literature available Following the pattern established by one of its major data sources viz the acclaimed Index Islamicus both journal articles and book publications are included and expertly indexed An indispensable entry for all those taking professional or personal interest in a nation so much the focus of attention today World and Its Peoples Marshall

Cavendish,2006-09 Describes the geography people culture and politics of the countries of the Middle East Central Asia and North Africa
