Memo For Grade 10 Mathematics November 2014:

Caught in the Act Cyril Julie, Lorna Holtman, Charles R. Smith, 2019-12-11 The research reported in Caught in the Act draws together the insights gained from a continuous professional development initiative for high school mathematics teachers teaching in low socio economic status and socially challenged environments in South Africa The chapters show the possibilities for enhancing achievement in school mathematics if a strength based approach is adopted to develop teaching with teachers and when their concerns are taken seriously The book demonstrates that the ecological relevance fitness for the context in which teachers are teaching of the goods developed and distributed by initiatives should be a major consideration to offer hope for sustainable implementation to improve school mathematics education The book is of interest to mathematics teachers school leaders mathematics curriculum advisors policy makers and researchers

Transforming History Mary Jo Festle, 2020-04-14 Teaching history well is not just a matter of knowing history it is a set of skills that can be developed and honed through practice In this theoretically informed but eminently practical volume Mary Jo Festle examines the recent explosion of research on the teaching and learning of history Illuminated by her own work Festle applies the concept of backward design as an organizing framework to the history classroom She provides concrete strategies for setting up an environment that is inclusive and welcoming but still challenging and engaging Instructors will improve their own conceptual understandings of teaching and learning issues as well as receive guidance on designing courses and implementing pedagogies consistent with what research tells us about how students learn The book offers practical illustrations of assignments goals questions grading rubrics unit plans and formats for peer observation that are adaptable for courses on any subject and of any size Transforming History is a critical guide for higher and secondary education faculty neophytes and longtime professionals alike working to improve student learning

Assessment Policy Reform Tina Isaacs, Iasonas Lamprianou, 2020-05-21 This book highlights the impact of policy and politics on assessment across the globe With contributions from England the Irish Republic Northern Ireland Norway Sweden Switzerland and Wales it explores state led assessment policies and practices that have been the subject of much debate We are experiencing a shift from using assessments especially national tests as measurement instruments designed to produce information to a reliance on tests to influence policy and instruction Once tests become high stakes for students teachers and schools even those that might have been reasonable monitors of educational success can lose dependability and credibility However not all countries assessment policies follow the same model and the contributors explore and analyse a range of different national and supra national assessment policy approaches and perspectives The chapters identify the impetus behind changing assessment policies and practices and analyse ways forward and innovative approaches Readers can draw their own conclusions about which model s can provide the best outcomes for learners surely the most important part of the equation This book was originally published as a special issue of Assessment in Education Principles Policy Practice
